read Port Huron 20, Sea-Led by Slater, the Maples stormed back in the third frame and when the buzzer sounded, they had a three point lead going into the final period. While the Seaholm offense did not let up, the defense became considerably more lax. Port Huron took full advantage of this situation to score 23 courts. more than they had in the cook full advan-points—more than they had in the entire first half. In the final two minutes of play nothing seemed to go right for the Maples.

go right for the Maples.

EXTRA WORK on free throws seemed to have helped the Maples as they hit on 70 per cent of their foul shots. The problem was that they were unable to shoot enough of them, whereas Port Huron found this to be no problem. Seatholm we have been supported for the Big Reds.

The Maples have had 61 fouls called on them to date, an average of better than 15 a game.

This has been the biggest difference between winning and losing in every game this season.

Friday's was the Maples' final game until Jan. 8 when they take on Mt. Clemes in the Seaholm gymnasium.
