Their Romance Started at Seaholm

At a holiday punch party to be given this afternoon for members of the families and close friends, Lynn Catherine Harkke's engagement to Thomas Cameron Morton will be announced, culminating a romance which started in Seaholm High School from which both young people were graduated. Lynn is the daughter of Mrs. James Benedict Harkke of W. 13 Mile Road, Beverly Hills, and the late Mr. Harkke, and Tom is the son of Mrs. John McLean of Waddington Road, Birmingham, and the late Dr. James A. Morton. The bride-elect is in her junior year at Central Michigan University, where she is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, and her fiancé is a junior at the University of Michigan. His fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon. An August wedding is being planned.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Residents Join in New Year's Party

By GLORIA JESSEP

Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Neeme of Beverly Hills are joining Mr. and Mrs. James Nordlie of Burning Bush, Bloomfield Village, in hosting a New Year's Eve celebration for the couples that have been gathering together for almost 15 years. The party will be held at the Nordlie home with a buffet served at midnight.

The invitations are in the mail and receiving them are the Hugh Mackeys, the Cranston Jones, the William Chickering, the Gene Parmenters, the Russ Fishers, the Jim Mays and the David Motts.

Others include Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Mihalich, Mr. and Mrs.

William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frick, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pardee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burlingame.

MR. AND MRS. FERRY B. Allen of Glenhurst Road, Bloomfield Village, drove to Battle Creek to spend Christmas with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bevan Allen and their son. After Christmas the Bevan Allens returned to the area with the senior Allens to spend the rest of the holidays renewing friendships. On Sunday the junior Allens will entertain their old Birmingham friends at an open house.

WESTWOOD MANOR

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Boling of Cincinnati, O., arrived last Saturday to spend Christmas with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Boling and their children of Westwood Court. The senior Bolings returned to their home Wednesday.

Mrs. Gordon Boling had a special treat this Christmas. She was among the group of area people who are members of the hand bell choir of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, that appeared on TV Sunday and again on Christmas day. The show had been taped previously so Mrs. Boling and the others could see their own first television appearance.

ON SUNDAY, Mr. and Mrs. Boling will entertain at a family dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Goldsmith of Tootmoo and Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Ed Moore who is visiting from Waco, Tex.

WING LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Gibson of Kansas City, Mo., arrived last week end to spend the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, and their family of Forman Drive.

The children of parents in the Forman Drive Association went on their annual "caroling walk" through the subdivision last Sunday. About 20 children and some parents participated.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS

The December meeting of the Bloomfield Heights branch WNFCA was held recently at the home of Mrs. George Morton, 4305 Pine Tree Trail. Members of the group spent the day making felt Christmas stockings which they stuffed with toiletries and costume jewelry. The stockings were taken to the women patients at Bloomfield Hospital. Co-hostesses for the day were Mrs. Darrell Roberts and Mrs. Lee Griffith.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark of Park St., Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter Elizabeth to Gerald K. Spry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spry of Wyandotte. Both young people are presently attending Michigan State University, majoring in music. Elizabeth is affiliated with Phi Mu Sorority, and Gerry is a member of Phi Mu Alpha. Date for the wedding will be announced later.
