100 Children Sing Carols; Santa Claus Visits Area

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9716

Santa Claus must have taken a little longer to make his rounds this year for at 8 a.m. on Christmas Day he was seen riding through Huntley Subdivision in his sleigh and leaving bags of gifts at each home where there were children.

At 5 p.m. on Christmas Eve the children who live in Huntley, and there are well over 100, were out carolling in front of all the homes. They had been pretty busy practicing for weeks.

BARBARA WHITE on Hillcrest entertained a group of 30 members of the Dental Hygiene Association at a dinner on Dec. 11. This was their annual Christmas Bohemian and instead of a gift, exchange the members donate toward their favorite charity project in Corktown.

ON DEC. 16, DR. and Mrs. Willard J. White on Hillcrest entertained the officers and committee chairmen of the Detroit District Dental Auxiliary and their husbands at a 5 o'clock dinner. The 60 guests enjoyed eggnog and appetizers before the buffet dinner in the holiday theme.

Guests were from Grosse Pointe, Dearborn, Detroit and Birmingham. Among those present from this area were Dr. and ried matching muffs to which were pinned flower arrangements in the gold tones.

Frederick P. Blair was best man, and ushers included John A. and James D. Hornkohl and Robert O. Blair.

Following a skiing trip in northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in Davison, Mich.

Mrs. Herpel, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Renzel and Dr. and Mrs. Murray Clark.

On Saturday Dr. and Mrs. White are planning another holiday party for neighbors, relatives and friends.
