MRS. HALLER

East Lansing To Be Home Of Newlyweds

Barbara French Chesterman, daughter of Mrs. Robert B. Gilray of Birmingham and John F. Chesterman of Red Bank, N. J., spoke her marriage vows Dec. 22 to Harold H. Haller, son of Mrs. Lamer Wood and Sherman Haller of Howell. The 2 o'clock service took place in Christ Church Cranbrook with the Rev. Gerald O'Grady officiating.

The bride wore a gown of imported brocade fashioned with a controlled semi-sheath skirt, fitted bodice, short jacket and a detachable court train. Her bouffant veil of French illusion fell from a self-made rose in matching brocade, and she carried a crescent bouquet of white roses.

Lynn Chesterman was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Joan Scott of Jackson; Donna Souch of Toronto and Mrs. James S. Haller of Howell. They all wore emerald green peau de sole dresses and carried red carnations with Christmas greens.

James Haller was best man, and seating the guests were William Earl of Kirkeville, Mo.; Charles Brigham of Linden, Mich.; Charles Holkins of Howell; John McCloskey of Detroit; James McGran of Dearborn and Gerald Knight of Howell.
Following a wedding trip through New Hampshire and to New York, the couple will make their home in East Lansing.
