St. Dunstan's Rehearsing For 'The Gioconda Smile'

Behind "The Gioconda Smile", which St. Dunstan's Guild is now rehearsing at their playhouse on a Lone Pine Road, lies a very intriguing and absorbing mystery drama.

"The Gioconda Smile" will be presented Feb. 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17 with the Feb. 16 performance being a benefit and proceeds going to the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children at the State Hospital. The benefit will be sponsored by the North Woodward Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

"The Gioconda Smile" concerns wealthy, cultured Henry Hutton, whose invalid wife suddenly dies, leaving him free to marry Doris, a girl considerably his junior. Henry

Hutton will be played by Mogens Klapp and Doris by Mrs. William B. Saunders. Janet Spence, portrayed by Dettie Wright, a neighbor and long-time friend of the Huttons, hires the nurse whose negligence is the cause to have contributed to the death of Mrs. Hutton.

FROM THERE on the plot thickens... the nurse, who hates men, believes Hutton has murdered his wife to marry Doris. The February show will be directed by John and Sidi Coppin. Production will be handled by Mrs. David M. Burnett.

The performances start at 9 p.m. in the Playhouse on Lone Pine Road and tickets are available at Grinnell's - Birmingham store.
