

Mary Virginia Annas Weds G. J. Fitzgerald

Holy Name Church was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Mary Virginia Annas to Gerald J. Fitzgerald. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene Paddock performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

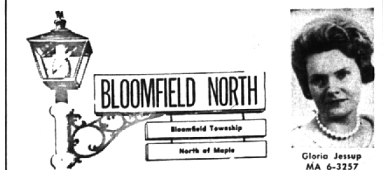

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Annas of Covington Road, Birmingham, and Dr. Gerald W. Fitzgerald of Eldorado, Lathrup Village, and the late Mrs. Fitzgerald.

THE BRIDE wore an ivory silk neau de soie gown designed with a sabrina neckline, three quarter length sleeves and a dome-shaped skirt which extended into a chapel train. She carried white butterfly orchids attached to her missal.

MRS. GERALD FITZGERALD

best man and ushers were Bernard Fitzgerald, Thomas Sullivan, Kenneth Yanch and Dane Kimball. A reception followed the ceremony at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. The newlyweds are honeymooning in New Orleans and will live in Birmingham.

Still Meadow Residents Take Over Skating Rink

STILL MEADOW—When you invite 50 couples to skate, with their children, you have to have a huge place to entertain them so Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Atkins of Burning Tree Drive rented Eton Park Skating Rink on a recent Sunday evening.

Mid-way in the party some organized skating was formed. From tots to teens—and Mom and Dad too—they did the grand march and finished with the "hokey-pokey" adjoining from time to time to the warming room for donuts and hot coffee and cocoa.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Flynn of Burning Tree Drive returned home a day early from their combined business and pleasure trip to Chicago last week so they could attend the Atkins' skating party with their children.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—One of the ladies who opened their home to host the scholarship fund of the University of Michigan was Mrs. Robert F. Gray of Sandringham Way. Mrs. Gray's party was a dessert and bridge Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies who enjoyed the telephone bridge were Mrs. Richard Bartley, Mrs. Royal Bradford, Mrs. Robert Dwan, Mrs. Douglas Deane, Mrs. Badgley Elmer, Mrs. Stephen Goodale and Mrs. H. C. Haas-Queen.

Others trying for grand alms and scores were Mesdames Wadsworth, Robert Morris, John Nevin, Mark Richards, Claude Sprunk, William Teutberg, H. James Theodoreff, William Wilson and Dale Winnie.

CHALMERS LAKE—The January meeting of the Woodcrest Farms Association was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spadafora of Clarendon Road.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. (Walt) Baker of Lakewood Road invited 19 to join them for cocktails and snacks before the Ridgeway Players' presentation of "The Heavens of His Company."

Enjoying Mrs. Baker's "snacks" a meal to be more exact—before the presentation a fortnight ago were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shumnick, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spadafora, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Holden, Mrs. H. C. Haldus and Mrs. H. M. Mularoni.

WING LAKE—Reluctantly returning from the wonderful California climate to our winter Michigan weather were Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Gray of Thurber Road. The Grays, with son Ricky, 6, returned last week after a five-week combined business and pleasure trip.

The trio left Michigan on Dec. 29 and the first stop was in Oakland, Calif., to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Gray's brother and family. Other stops included San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and business convention for Gray in San Diego where he represented General Motors.

Highlights of their trip were three days at Disneyland and a side trip to Marineland and Knotts Berry Farm.

DELLS OF BLOOMFIELD—The newest newcomer to the Dells of Bloomfield is eight pond, six ounce Lee William Waldrep who arrived on Jan. 21 to become the fourth child and third boy of the Carl Waldrep household on Kellen Lane.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Marjorie Grierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Grierson of Amberly Road, celebrated her sixth birthday on Jan. 28, a few days ahead of time by inviting her little girl friends to the B'wana Bon Show, held at the Birmingham Community House recently.

LONE PINE VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Heisberger of Justice Court returned last weekend after skating for four days at Boyne Mountain. Accompanying them were their two children, Susan and Dean, and Claudia and David Carrick, children of Mr. and Mrs. C. William Carrick of Ranch Lane.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—Boy Scout Troop 1022, under the leadership of Brooke Stanford, William McCormick, and William Dull, took their first trip to the state capital at Lansing on Jan. 27.

Robert Dial, a General Motors pilot, arranged for the boys to take a tour of one of the deluxe planes in use by the executives of GM. Each scout took his turn sitting in the pilot's seat.

This Saturday the scouts will go on another outing. It will be an ice fishing derby held at Chalmers Lake. The fishing will begin at 10 a.m. and there will be a prize for the biggest catch. The boys will cook their lunch over the fire and following lunch enjoy some races and relays on the ice.

WING LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr of Sunningdale Road journeyed to Chicago last week to meet former Bloomfield Hills residents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winston. The Kerrs had skied the previous weekend at Otsego and before that trip some of the slopes outside of the U.S.

With their children, Mary and Bill, the Kerrs spent the holidays in Switzerland, Austria and France with a stopover for a day in London. They returned home early in January.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—The Cub Scouts of Den One and their den mother, Mrs. Brooke Stanford, went to the Detroit Institute of Arts on a recent excursion. They made the trip to see the Hearst collection of armor in connection with the theme of the month which was "Knighthood."

Harold Newhouse will be the guest speaker at the Tuesday PTO meeting at Wing Lake on Wednesday. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. The topic will be "Avis to Prevent Juvenile Delinquency." The public is invited to attend.

The Cub Scouts of Pack 1022 met at Conant School last Thursday evening. The gym was decorated with shields and pennants and appeared to be a castle court yard. At the door were shields announcing to the guests that the theme of the evening was "Knights of Yore."

The scouts had been busily working on costumes, helmets, swords and shields to be used in the parade. Each of the four dens had made a horse, out of everything from old kitchen cutlery to real leather.

Cubmaster Dick Sourther, was the newest newcomer to the Dells of Bloomfield is eight pond, six ounce Lee William Waldrep who arrived on Jan. 21 to become the fourth child and third boy of the Carl Waldrep household on Kellen Lane.
