

'Winter Wonderland' Theme of Reunion

Tobogganing, ice skating and lots of fun in a "winter wonderland" await a group of girls who were last summer campers and counselors - in - training at the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron. The girls will get together for a winter reunion at Camp Cavell Saturday and Sunday.

Loaded down with sleeping bags and scores of blankets, with snow boots, scarves, slacks, ski pants and other winter gear, they will depart by bus from Central Branch Y.W. at 8:30 a.m. Friday and return early the next evening. Among those attending the Cavell winter reunion from Birmingham are Carol Mitchell, 1125 Edmonds; and Dawn Martin, 1328 E. Maple.

First Methodist Church Scene of Evening Rites

The First Methodist Church was the scene Jan. 6 for the marriage of Sally Kay Strey and John Edward Ley. The double ring ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the newblows are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Strey of Forest Lane, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ley of Beverly Road, Beverly Hills.

MRS. JOHN E. LEY

DORIS Green served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald Fracassi, Dianne Pixley and Karen Stinson. They wore apricot satin gowns designed with three quarter length sleeves. They carried cascades of tangerine carnations.

Best man was Michael McNulty and ushers were Guy Janner, Robert Vinson and William Strey. Ring bearer was Richard Robinson and flower girl was Kimberlee Strey.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Strey wore a mink beige re-embroidered lace bodice peau de soie gown. Mother of the bridegroom chose an atracado embroidered eyellet organza over bone satin.

FOLLOWING a northern Michigan and Wisconsin honeymoon, the newblows are residing in Southfield.
