COAT, with boldness galore. It has shawl collar, big brass buttons, and pockets that sweep back to join the belt. 34.95

Caribbean-Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Boyd of Forbus Drive, Bloomfield Hills, on board the Grace Line's Santa Rosa, which sailed from New York last month on a Caribbean cruise to Curacao, N.W.I.; La Guaira, Venezuela and Kingston, Jamaica. Mr. Boyd is vice president of sales with American Motors Corp.

Miss Todd Wears Gown Of Rosepointe Brocade

Gowned in rosepointe brocade, Penelope Todd became the bride of Robert F. Lavery Friday evening in St. Dunstan's Chapel, Christ Church-Cranbrook. The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 120 guests.

MRS. ROBERT LAVERY

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby G. Todd of Greenwood Street, Birmingham, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne F. Lavery of Saffield Drive, Birmingham.

DELICATE pearls encircled the sabrina neckline of the bride's gown and the long tapering sleeves. The empire waistline formed pleats and flowed gracefully into the full skirt. Her bouffant silk illusion veil was held in place by a soft Dior rose of silk organza. She carried phalaenopsis orchids on a prayer book.

Nancy Roberson of Riverdale Drive served as maid of honor. She wore a peacock blue candle-light bouffant taffeta dress and carried a cascading bouquet of miniature yellow carnations with an accent of yellow sweetheart roses and ivy.

TWIN FLOWER girls were Mary and Laura Gyson. They wore blue silk organza bouffant dresses and carried white fur muffs which were attached miniature bouquets of yellow carnations and sweetheart roses.

Bennett E. Wright stood as best man and ushers were Edmond Peters and Earle McGarrah.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlor.

Gourmet Evening Set
