

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, February 8, 1962

Liberty and freedom are sort of Siamese twins that insure one a satisfactory opportunity to plan and live his life with minimum interference by the government of his nation, state, or locality. The minute that one is taxed beyond the actual governmental needs to defend such freedom and liberty—that moment does one lose a portion of freedom and liberty.

Ending the Detroit Metropolitan League debate season with a strong finish, Seaholm debaters came up with a 12-12 record and fifth place in the standings, with the University of Detroit High School taking first place.

The debaters are now looking forward to the state championship tournaments. Elimination tournaments for the district championship will be held at Troy High School early this month. This will be one of the 10 such tournaments held in Michigan. Then, after winners are selected, they will meet each other to decide the state championship.

Seaholm's first debate will be against Pontiac Northern High School.

In the Metropolitan League final debates, Seaholm faced Southfield and Dondoro. Varsity teams won three out of their four debates, while reserve teams split theirs for a 2-2 record.

FORMING THE varsity affirmative were Greg Frontier and Ben Root; they lost their first debate to Southfield but bounced back to defeat Dondoro. The varsity negative team, with Pat Squibb replacing Mary Long, who left Seaholm, with Frank Green as the other half, took both of their debates. During the time Mary was on the team, he and Frank had just lost one debate.

Taking the debate from Southfield but losing to Dondoro were Pat Kosch and Nancy Putz, the reserve affirmative team. Bruce Cronander and Tom Geggie made up the reserve negative team which defeated Dondoro and lost to Southfield.

KNOWING THAT summer is months away, nevertheless, plans are already being made for summer school, 1962. To provide an opportunity for students to repeat courses for needed credits, to make it possible for students to ease the regular year schedule, to assist transfer students in their adjustments to a new system and to offer courses which would be impossible to take during the year, the Birmingham Board of Education once more is making it possible for students to do all these things.

Open to students who are residents of Detroit, high school seniors in grades seven through 12, each student must have the approval of his counselor or principal to enter the program and assure acceptance of credits.

More information will be given later.

To Compete in State
Homemaking Contest

Maribeth Moseley from Seaholm High School is a winner in the 1962 Betty Crocker "Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow" contest, thus becoming eligible for one of 102 scholarships which total $110,000.

Having received the highest score in her school in the knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls Dec. 6, Maribeth will have her paper entered in competition with those of winners in other high schools of the state for state honors.

The state "Homemaker of Tomorrow," to be named in the spring, will receive a $1,500 scholarship from the sponsor of the program. A $500 award will go to the second highest ranking state winner.

Later, State "Homemakers," with their advisors, will enjoy an expense-paid tour of New York City, Washington, D. C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va., to culminate with the naming of the 1962 winner on May 3 at a banquet in Williamsburg.

A Sweetheart of a Gift

Albert Sheetz Candy

He: Ummmmmm! She sure loves that Albert Sheetz candy. It's no wonder. What a variety of pure goodness. Probably the shape of the box (they have the biggest selection) sets the holiday mood. Women love it. Maybe it was the way I presented it to her. Albert Sheetz says it with candy better than anyone else. Let me see . . . yup! I've already bought a heart-box for mom, sis, granny, auntie . . . I think I'll just concentrate on my sweetie.

She: Ummmmmm! He's a doll. Always remembers to brighten up my Valentine's Day. It's brighter than ever now! That Albert Sheetz heart-box is filled with so much variety . . . creams, jellies, caramels, nuts . . . just everything you could desire. I would have been happy with any of the heart-boxes . . . the striped one is different, though! We both love shopping in the cheery and informal atmosphere at Albert Sheetz candy.
