

Franklin Boys Invited to Join Explorer Scouts

FRANKLIN—A special invitation to boys 14 years old or over, interested in joining an Explorer scouting unit has been extended by Troop 1011.

Franklin area boys will meet with William Bunnell and Harold Dilow Feb. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church to discuss re-activating the program.

No scouting background is necessary to participate.

An officer of a branch of the Armed Forces will also be present to describe opportunities in the military services available to young men concerned with fulfilling their military obligations.

TROOP 1011 also announces it will hold a paper drive on Feb. 24. Residents are urged to prepare newspaper and magazine bundles for pickup.

ON FEB. 10 and 11, Troop 1011 will hold a father-son camp-out at Sleeper State Park.

Franklin WNFCA International Lunch Scheduled Monday

FRANKLIN—The colorful dress and tasty dishes of foreign lands will bring an authentic note to the International Cooperation luncheon planned for next Monday by the Franklin WNFCA.

GUEST SPEAKER, Miss Gloria Schour of Grosse Ile will discuss "Lure of Strange Countries" before members and their guests meeting at noon in the Franklin Community Church.

The table-of-the-month will feature dolls and articles from many nations visited by members or brought as gifts from traveling friends.

THE HOSTESSES, Mrs. Paul Bergeron and Mrs. Roy N. Nelson, co-chairmen, with Mrs. Max Bader, Mrs. Robert DeLonge, Mrs. A. Gerhardt, Mrs. Paul J. Ziegelaar, Mrs. P. H. Becker, Mrs. Walker L. Draper, Mrs. Thomas C. Larkins, Mrs. Harold M. Shattock and Mrs. Darrell Taylor will wear authentic costumes of peoples of the world.

The noon luncheon will consist of an interesting buffet with a large variety of international foods.

Proceeds will augment the group's international fund.

B'field Village PTA Hosts Discussion

A panel discussion on after-school activities of students was participated in by representatives of several area organizations at a meeting of the Bloomfield Village PTA Monday night.

Representatives from the Birmingham Y M C A, Birmingham Recreation Board and local Girl and Boy Scout organizations took part in the discussion, titled "After Hours."

The program was arranged by William Ives, program chairman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Poole and her committee.

WNFGA Convenes

WEST BLOOMFIELD—Mrs. C. K. Gardner was hostess last week to the New England Estates WNFGA. The program was a film on arrangements of spring floral beds. Mrs. Charles Peterson was co-hostess.

Couples Club Convenes For Sleigh Ride, Dinner

FRANKLIN—All things considered, it is reasonable to expect the Couples Club will have the elements in its favor this Friday night.

Members have planned a sleigh ride and spaghetti dinner for their February event. Gathering at the Hayride Lodge in Rochester at 8:30 p.m., they have every confidence Mr. W. W. Oaks will provide the right amount of moonlit snow for background.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Miller and their committee, Mr. and Mrs. William Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Case and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stokke, will handle other party details. Dancing and games are "warmer-uppers" in mind.

The Win Conrads of Senic spent the weekend at Otsego skiing.

Birthday girl Marian Stokke of Hershbyvale entertained ten for luncheon last week and skating on her own private skating pond.

The Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary held a bake sale and potluck luncheon today at the home of Mrs. Clayton Currin on 14 Mile Road.

The Franklin Garden Club members were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jaynes last Thursday night.

Seaman first-class Stuart Robertson made it home for a short leave with his family on David Drive—after battling blizzards for three hours en route from New London.

The family rallied 'round at a Sunday dinner party to admire new designs and hear all about his assignment to the USS Portius which will be bound for Scotland and other interesting ports this spring.

The Franklin Community Association is seeking parents interested in working with the Franklin Summer Camp program. Organizing to get plans moving for the summer are youth activities chairman George Howard and PTA president Ted Ketter (pretty dapper at wearing two hats).

Nice to see while he was home for mid-terms was Doug Van Dyke of Franklin Road.

Jill and Roger Marce also broke the ice around town during a respite from studies.

Sue Hard managed to duck the domestic scene in Franklin to practice shoo-hoos on the scenic slopes around Petoskey after her "professional" semester as a practice-teacher at Forsyth Junior High in Ann Arbor. Due to graduate in June, she returned to the U of M campus to take up duties as rush counselor for Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaiety Barr (the former Sandra Beaudoin) became parents of a daughter, Brendaline, Jan. 30.

The event means another grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barr of Meadowdale, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Beaudoin of 13 Mile Road attain a new status as grandparents.

SCHOOLMARM, Miss Marjorie Tate, Franklin principal, didn't dream she'd have to be so manually oriented to administer the affairs of her domain.

But after pushing 31 cars stuck in front of the school a week ago, she's decided her MA degree stands for "Muscular Ability." Village clerk Elsie Garwood solved the problem by ordering sand trucks to the spot as soon as she heard of the difficulty.

Bowling Clinic, Adult Ice Skating On Franklin Agenda

FRANKLIN—A bowling clinic for youngsters of Franklin will be held at 1 p.m. Feb. 17 at Starline Bowling Center on Northwestern.

It is sponsored by the youth committee of the Franklin Community Association.

The dollar registration fee will include shoes and instruction from Eleanor Gorman and other professional bowling experts. Reservations can be made with George Howard or other PTA directors.

THE FRANKLIN Community Association has also planned an adult skating party on Feb. 21 from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Iceland Skating Club, 1250 E. Maple near Crooks Road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Madalin are arranging details.
