long house party week end at Sarnia recently.

Tuneful Teas

Detroit Opera Theater Inc. will give the first in their series of musical teas February 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Eoval. Pointing to their April 13 and 14 presentations of "Masquerade" members of the cast will perform at these teas. Assisting Mrs. Eoval will be Mrs. George Romnev, Mrs. Lynn Townsend, Mrs. Lawrence Hetzell and Mrs. Charles Himelhoch.

One, Two, Three

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schulte announce the birth of their third child, a daughter, Lou Ann. Mrs. Schulte is the former Dorothy Garstepy.

Out West

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson will spend the rest of the winter in their home in the Paradise Valley section of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Due Home

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKenney are due home after a three week holiday in Miami.

Mrs. James Campbell reports a smashing bowling season among the ladies at Bloomfield hills Country Club. She is chairman this year with assistance from Mrs. Ben Mills and Mrs. John S. Kerr.

House Party

Week end house parties, never really gone from the scene, have felt a recent swift revival around town. Cadillac was the site of a recent ski party for Mr. and Mrs. Walker Calderwood, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monteth, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Bearden and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bearden.

Sun Valley Rally

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthael, Jr. will soon head for the Spring skiing at Sun Valley. With them will be the Gordon Getsingers. The Morgan Douglas, Mrs. will return to their favorite spot, Alta where they qualify as experts with ease.

On Plantation

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Wolty and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mosby will leave in March for a vacation at Falmouth, Jamaica, where they will stay at Good Hope Plantation, a lavish old home recently converted into a resort.

Go West

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Scovintine have arranged stops in Chicago, Las Vegas, Los Angeles and San Francisco on their trip west.

Away to Aspen

Mr. and Mrs. H. Richard Stodling have reservations for two weeks at the Prospecter in Aspen, Col. Also there on skiing vacations at the same time will be the Lekroy Dahlborgs and the Russell Stricklands.

An optimistic homemaker is one who clings to the notion that the family will one day learn to put things away after using them. According to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Co., failure to put tools, accessories, toys and other household items away after usage is considered a leading cause of home accidents.

Forming New WNFCA Branch

Mrs. Earle S. MacPherson (left) of Mer-rimac Court, Bloomfield Hills, opened her home Wednesday to members of Cranbrook Branch for an organizational meeting to sponsor a new branch. Among the guests attending were (center) Mrs. James Richards, president of Williamsburg branch; and Mrs. Arthur Hyde, Michigan Extension chairman. The branch will comprise ladies from the Williamsburg Row section which is in the vicinity of Lone Pine Road and Franklin.
