

Being courteous, considerate, and kindly toward others is, in a more direct pattern than most people are able or willing to remember, really being courteous, considerate and kindly toward one's self. Most of the good that we do and show toward others quite often returns blessings to the doer—thus a sort of "chain reaction" sets in, with many doing good to many others.

The Certificate of Merit awarded to finalists.

SELECTED FROM finalists, the Merit Scholars will be announced the end of April. They will receive scholarships from the resources of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and from sponsoring businesses, foundations and individuals.

Early Deadlines In Effect for Feb. 21 Issue

Because there will be no mail delivery on George Washington's birthday, The Birmingham Eccentric will publish Wednesday, Feb. 21, instead of Thursday, Feb. 22.

All deadlines will move up one day earlier than usual.

Therefore, all news and advertising copy should be brought in to our offices at 1225 E. Bowers as early as possible.

Kingswood School

Four Kingswood girls, Josephine Dudeck, Sally Fead, Patricia Yingling and Kathy Mansfield, have been named National Merit Scholarship Finalists.

A PROGRAM, "This Atomic World," was presented Feb. 8. A combination lecture and demonstration, its purpose was to acquaint the student body with the basic principles of atomic energy and its applications. It was offered by the United States Atomic Energy Commission.

THE SEVENTH and eighth grades entertained the Cranbrook boys of the same grades Feb. 9 at the annual valentine dance. The dance, which was held from 7:30 to 10 p.m., was called "Buttons and Beaus."

THE MID-WINTER formal was held last Saturday for grades 9-12. The dance was called "Carnival Capers." Judy Saanen was the general chairman with Connie Bennett as the chairman in charge of refreshments. Patricia Polan handled the invitations and programs, while Susan Wege took charge of the decorations. These girls were assisted by Katharine Crosby, Karen Hooper, Diana McCullough, Fran Fredericks, Danute Meskins, Karen Plew, Lauren Poplack and Dorothy Withers.

Derby Dragons

Parents of eighth grade students are invited to a PTA meeting at 8 tonight. Mr. Ross Warner, principal of Seaholm High School, will speak on "Planning for the Next Four Years." Parents will be briefed on what should be included in their son's or daughter's schedule in high school.

NEXT WEEK, a whole lot of clothes will be collected in honor for the annual Save the Children Federation Clothing Drive. The clothes will be sent to needy people in the mountain areas of the United States.

NEXT MONDAY, Mrs. D. Salton R.N. and with the help of some parents of students at Derby will begin giving fluoride treatments to eighth grade students. Each student taking part in the program will receive four applications of fluoride during the next month.

BAND I, composed of eighth and ninth graders, is practicing three pieces of music for the district band festival being held on Feb. 24 at Bundero High School. "American Folk Rhymes" by Clara E. Grundman is the required number. The other two pieces the band will play are "Overture in Classical Style" by Charles Carter and "Kymmer" by Frank Erickson. Bands which receive a first division rating at the district festival will go to the state festival being held this year in East Lansing.

Academy of the Sacred Heart

At assembly on Monday, distinguished cards were awarded to students in the senior school who maintained a 90 per cent average in all their tests.

Honor students are Rose Marie Stevens, Marianne Vogtlewede, Betty Bauer, Patricia Shannon, Susan Burkhardt, Debra Burns, Robin Collins, Mary Jo Strale, Christine Taylor, Margery Ahlke, Jane Alvarez, Mary Fat McGloach and Ann Uveling.

A CERTIFICATE of merit was awarded to Rose Marie Stevens last week by the National Merit Scholarship program. Rose Marie is a finalist in the scholarship competition.

Besides being an honor student, she is a member of the student government, treasurer of her class and treasurer of the Duchesne Mission Unit. She plans to attend Manhattanville College in Purchase, New York.

LEADING ROLES in "The Merchant of Venice" will be played by Sharon Bedford, Betty Bauer, Fleurette Lourim, Patti Carey and Peggy O'Connor.

MRS. LEO J. BRENNAN spoke to the senior class last week about the nursing profession. Mrs. Brennan is a Sacred Heart alumna.

BLOOMFIELD GRADUATES, Marcia Strale, Julie Ghislandi and Carolyn Kroha visited the Academy last week during their semester break from Barat College in Lake Forest, Ill.

Students also greeted Carol McQuaid, class of '61, home from Maryville College in St. Louis.
