Walnut Lake's PTA To Convene Monday

WALNUT LAKE—The Walnut Lake PTA will meet at the school at 8 p. m. Monday. William S. Corliss will headline this month's meeting. The program will be of interest to parents. Corliss is responsible for planning and improving the elementary program.

William Foust, fifth-grade teacher, has been relieved of his teaching assignment for the second semester to complete his principal internship. Foust has been at Walnut Lake School for the past six years, serving in many and varied capacities.

He will now spend time with central office administration to better understand the Birmingham school system and the educational program.

WALNUT LAKE—The latest Scout notes are that Brian Brooks graduated from Wellesl Rink in Pack 41 to Boy Scout Troop 41 at the last pack meeting on Jan. 25. Twenty-five scouts from Troop 41 attended the Polar Bear Outing recently. Competition was tough but two patrols did well in compass work, ice rescue, estimating fire building, first aid. One placed in first five, second, in first ten. The troop will attend winter camp this weekend at Camp Agawan. The news is that Billy Covey makes second class and that Hal Morse has been made a senior pack leader—Chuck Betz is his assistant.

BRAES—All sunshine and good weather helped to make the Florida vacation of the Richard McLaughlins of Idlewild a happy one. Marianne, 8, and Mike, 5, went along with their parents. They flew by jet and stayed for ten days at the Key Biscayne Hotel at Key Biscayne, Fla.
