

Lathrup Cub Pack Holds Dinner, Presents Awards

LATHRUP — Cub Pack 1341 held its annual Blue and Gold banquet at Northbrook School Feb. 8. After the dinner, planned by Mrs. Arthur Detrisse and Mrs. Robert Wunderlich, the charter was presented to the pack by neighborhood commissioner Perry Warner. He also awarded the pack a national Scout award for outstanding troop work and an award honoring the fact that every boy in the pack had completed his achievement.

New Bear Cubs are David Anderson, Richard Anderson, Brian Fishhaber, Robert Garrison, Richard McGee and Frederick Ploch. Boys awarded their Lion badges were Bruce Anderson, Alan Campbell, David Detrisse, Robert Mair, William Ritter, Jeff Scott, Louis Cavarella, Chris Goldard, Tom Kassiri, David Martin, John Tracy, Robert Wunderlich and Walter Mullenhagen. These boys were also presented with Webelos patches by Dr. Thuraacher. Robert Denyer led the group in community singing. The award of the golden arrow went to Den Three and the honor flag to Den Two.

The greatest speaker. He will discuss Michigan's tax problems. All Republican women in Bloomfield Township are invited to meet their senator and to participate in the informal discussion that morning. Mrs. John Crissman, president, also extends a welcome to all ladies who are interested in joining the group.

Rec Commission Plans Classes in Oil Painting

LATHRUP — The very successful Lathrup Recreation Commission art classes for youngsters from third through eighth grade will soon include work in charcoal and in late March, with the formation of new classes, will go on to oil painting.

The present classes, meeting on Tuesdays and Wednesdays at B'ney and on Thursdays at Lathrup School at 3:45, held an art exhibit of their creations at the latter school Feb. 3 and filled the main hall of the school with pictures in conte crayon, pastel and pencil.

Teacher is Mrs. Douglas Lady, who says the youthful artists' pride work could have been stacked three deep around the room, though it was arranged in most delightful manner according to viewers.

Students interested in the oil painting classes may contact Mrs. William J. O'Brien, recreation director, 18475 San Quentin.

The commission, incidentally, saw the beginning of new teen dance classes at Birney Feb. 12. The ballroom classes are open to eighth and ninth graders; on Mondays at 3:45 p.m.

And the young people hardly need reminding but the four local ice skating rinks are in fine shape; two behind Lathrup School and two on W. California, for after school and weekend use.

Wayne State University's record mid-year count of graduates included two local residents: Carol A. Paulus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Paulus of Rainbow Drive and William E. Stone, son of the Richard H. Stones of Meadowbrook.

Carol won her bachelor of science degree in nursing—she is a graduate of Shrine of the Little Flower High School, Bill, a Belle

High School alumnus, won his bachelor of fine arts in sculpturing.

Back from Fort Lauderdale after a two-week sojourn are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jackson of Lathrup Street who jetted down for their holiday. They enjoyed the company of the Robert LaRues who visited the resort city for several days.

The Jacksons were initiated into the excitement of deep sea fishing and she caught a 28-pound kingfish. Another highlight was a trip through the Everglades before returning to less sunny climes.

SOUTHFIELD — Local Kiwanis will entertain their husbands on the 17th of March as they head for "The King and I" which should make a bit of international fun—a touch of Siam on St. Pat's Day. March 8 meeting is at the home of Mrs. W. Watts, with co-hostesses Julie Walton and Gladys Pollock assisting her.

LATHRUP — Also back from Florida are the Art Antonellis who returned to late March 2 from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Pompano Beach. A stop-off in Muncie, Ind. to visit friends was their trip home.

"Come as a Song" is the theme of the next gathering of the Lathrup Woman's Club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hodas in charge of arrangements. Prizes will be awarded for the best costume—ideas is to dress to represent any well-known song. Door prizes and tables and food present are to be highlights of the afternoon.

Local Women Plan Area Blood Bank At Franklin Church

FRANKLIN — The only blood bank in the Franklin area this year will be held March 2 from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church.

Unique in Oakland county, the North Farmington Blood bank unit, a under co-ordinator, Mrs. Charles Brown of Wood Creek Farms, will be calling prospective donors this week to make appointments.

Mrs. Kenneth Bailey is recruiting chairman for Franklin. Others are Mrs. W. Hyland, Bingham Farms; Mrs. M. Priary, Walnut Lake; Mrs. C. Maier, Foxcroft; Mrs. C. F. Jakes, Franklin Knolls; Mrs. W. V. Burton for Wing Lake and Franklin Woods.

The list continues with Mrs. J. Holmes, Meadon-lake-Maple Meadows; Mrs. W. Bunnell, Franklin Valley; Mrs. H. Wright, Westgate; Mrs. T. Dinwiddie, Holly Hills; Mrs. W. Brown, Wood Creek Farms; Mrs. D. W. Davidson, Westbrook-Knollwood area and Mrs. R. J. Bratton, Glen Oaks.

Detroit Woman Killed In 2-Car Accident On Southfield Road

SOUTHFIELD — A 56-year-old Detroit woman was killed in a two-car collision at Southfield and Nine Mile Roads on Saturday afternoon. Dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital was Mrs. Betty Langeris.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Theodore, 62. Police said Langeris' car, heading north on Southfield Road, was attempting a left turn onto Nine Mile Road when his car was struck on the right side by another vehicle driven by Morrey Kanter, 38, also of Detroit.

Kanter was driving south on Southfield Road when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Langeris' death was the first fatality in a traffic accident in Southfield this year.

Dance Enthusiasts Set Tentative Class Date

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—After weeks of planning, seven local couples finally settled for a Sunday night for their dancing club classes—at least to start off. They met Sunday at the home of the Walter Gatzes with instructor Manuel Rodriguez present to guide them through some new steps.

On hand were the Donald Hunts, George Cummings, Robert Schaffers, Gene Lenzyak, H. W. Hastings and the Marcel Behars, the latter are Southfield residents, who had from Turkey.

It's that time of year and couples are drifting back and forth from the warm south. Latest returnees are the Harry R. Hillners of Rock Creek Drive who spend a week away from home recently. They visited Nassau, New Providence Island and especially remember with pleasure two days at Paradise Island in the Bahamas.

Back on Feb. 9, they started that day off with swimming in 80 degree temperatures before heading for the airport and the broozy north. Hillner is executive director of the Michigan chapter of the national Skiing Society.

Skiing was on the agenda for the

Robert Swearingin can over the first weekend in February when they turned the family car toward Mt. Mansfield, Young Bob, H. Chuck, 9, and Tom, 7, agreed with their parents that the winter sport is a real snow "ball."

Date is now set for the Cranbrook Association's couples' bridge tournament at the Women's Guild in the concourse of Federal's at Clawson. The date is March 2 and residents in suits one, three, four and five may contact chairman Mrs. Donn Boswell of Southgate if they want to participate.

Speaking of bridge, Mrs. Al Backen of Rock Creek Drive hosted neighborhood bridge clubbers at a luncheon Feb. 8 at her home. The game usually meet the first Thursday of the month—naturally this month's devor was good and white for Valentine's Day.

At least they're still close to good friends and neighbors the Charles R. Starrs moved from Southgate to their new home on Arlington in Southfield on Feb. 2. He is associated with Starr Heat Treating Co., Detroit.

The couple have one son, Charles, 5. Starr is a hi-fi enthusiast and

Rouge River Topic Of Group's Meeting In Southfield City

SOUTHFIELD—The Rouge River Drain Association of Southfield will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday to discuss protecting and preserving the river's valley and ravine.

The meeting will be in the cafeteria of the Alico Insurance Building on Northland Drive.

PAUL McELWAIN, president of the association, will speak on the esthetic and financial sides of the project. City, county and nearby community officials have been invited. A discussion will follow.

The meeting is opened to the public. Mrs. Starr likes to enjoy boating; Mrs. Starr likes to garden and sew.

Although we're a bit late, we're glad to welcome new baby Susan Louise who joined the Thomas L. Shroyck family on Dec. 10. Big sister is Mary Elizabeth, 2 plus. Shroyck is a salesman with Lyon Metal Products.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Exoo and sons Jeffrey and Michael visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jorgensen of Cleveland, over the Feb. 2 weekend. The family live on Westbrook Parkway.
