U-M Courses Opening in B'ham, B'field

Enrollment is still open for University of Michigan credit courses which are beginning in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills this week, according to the Extension Service. All are graduate-level courses, which under certain circumstances, qualified students may apply toward advanced degrees.

In Birmingham, class sessions are held at Derby Junior High School. "America in Literature Since 1870" is meeting weekly on Mondays, 7:30 p. m. "Geology for Teachers" meets on Tuesday evenings at the same time, and "Education of Exceptional Children," a course in special education, meets at 4:30 p. m. on Wednesdays.

Three credit classes are also opening in Bloomfield Hills, meeting at Cranbrook School for Boys (with one exception). A course in anthropology, "Indian in North America," and a course in education, "Psychology and Teaching of Reading, Writing, and Spelling," are meeting at 7:30 p. m. on Tuesdays. Sessions for the first of these courses are held at the Cranbrook Institute of Science. On Thursdays, 7:30 p. m., "The Deviant Individual," a course in psychology, is being offered.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

The Board of Education of the School District of the City of Birmingham, Michigan, will receive sealed bids for the construction and completion of a Storage and Service Building at the Service Facility, East Lincoln at Eton, Birmingham, Michigan, until 2:00 P.M., E.S.T., Friday, March 16, 1962, at the office of the Board of Education, Chester Street, Birmingham, Michigan, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Separate sealed proposals are invited for the following sections of the work:

- PROPOSAL "A"—ARCHITECTURAL TRADES
- PROPOSAL "B"—MECHANICAL WORK
- PROPOSAL "C"—ELECTRICAL WORK
- PROPOSAL "D"—REFRIGERATED FREEZER UNIT

Each proposal shall be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond executed by an approved Surety Company in an amount not less than five percent (5%) of the proposal amount, payable to the Board of Education of the School District of the City of Birmingham, Michigan, as security for the acceptance of the Contract.

Proposals must be on forms furnished by the Architect and must list proposed subcontractors and material suppliers, or manufacturers, together with any proposed substitutions for required Base Proposal materials.

Plans and specifications may be obtained on and after Monday, March 5, 1962, at the office of the Architect, Jickling & Lyman Architects, 261 Daines, Birmingham, Michigan.

A check in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25) must be submitted as a deposit for each set of plans and specifications, same to be refunded upon return of plans and specifications in good condition within ten (10) days of the opening of bids.

Accepted bidders will be required to furnish satisfactory Performance Bond and Labor and Material Bond, each in the amount of 100% of the Contract, the total cost of which shall be paid by the accepted bidder.

All proposals shall remain firm for thirty (30) days after official opening of bids.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids in whole or in part, and to waive any informalities therein.
