

Perhaps it is well that, now and then, we reflect upon the fact that not always "to the victor goes the spoils." By this is meant that quite often the person who appears only to be thinking slowly, plodding along easily, finally (and in quite good time) reaches the desired objective. 'Tis the old axiom of the hare and the tortoise, of course. Reduced, but consistent progress avoids dangerous tensions.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, January 4, 1962

SECTION
C

Local Girls Ring in the New Year

SALLY ANN AHLGRIM

At a recent dinner party, Sergeant and Mrs. Lorenz Ahlgrim of Blackburn Drive, Orchard Lake, announced the engagement of their daughter, Sally Ann, to E. Sidney Rhind, son of Dr. and Mrs. Earl S. Rhind of Sault Ste. Marie.

The bride-elect is attending the University of Michigan, where she is affiliated with Kappa Delta Sorority. Her fiancé is also attending the University of Michigan. He is a member of Phi Rho Sigma Medical Fraternity.

MICHAEL STOFFER

At a family dinner party, Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Stouffer of E. Square Lake Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Michael Ann, to David R. Theobald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Theobald of Kensington Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Mickey is attending Miami University, where she is a member of Psi Beta Phi. Her fiancé is a graduate of Cranbrook and a 1961 graduate of Denison University. His fraternity is Sigma Chi. An August wedding is planned.

SALLY LYNNE YOUNG

At a cocktail party in their Dunston Road home, Dr. and Mrs. Donald A. Young announced the engagement of their daughter, Sally Lynne, to Roderic Vail Wiley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roderic Vail Wiley of Wing Lake Road, Birmingham.

Sally is a graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook and Northwestern University. Her fiancé is a graduate of Culver Military Academy. He attended U of M, where he was affiliated with Psi Upsilon and is now studying at Western Michigan University. An Aug. 11 wedding is planned.

BARBARA HEDRICK

Mr. and Mrs. John Peters Hedrick of Theford Lane, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to John Elden Bowman, son of Mrs. John LeFevre of Springfield, Ohio, and the late Mr. Bowman.

A graduate of Kingswood School, Barbara is a senior at Denison University, where she is president of the Panhellenic Council and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Her fiancé is a graduate of Millbrook School, and of Denison University. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi and attending the College of Law at Ohio State University. A June wedding is planned.

JAN LYNCH

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lynch of Covington Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Jan Elizabeth, to William Clemens Herrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Herrick of Grosse Pointe Farms, Friday at a champagne supper.

Jan attended Smith College for two years and is now a student at the University of Michigan. Her fiancé is also a student at U. of M. He is past president of Delta Kappa Epsilon and a member of Hecetors honorary fraternity.

ANN ELIZABETH COPE

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cope of Warwick Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Ann Elizabeth, to Hillar John Falk, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Falk of Jackson, Mich.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Michigan State University, where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa Sorority. Her fiancé, a graduate of Michigan State University, was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

A March 24 wedding is planned.

CYNTHIA ADAMS

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Adams of Fairfax Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia Sue, to Marcon Charles Trabue Jr., son of the senior Trabues of Mount Clemens, New Year's Eve at a brunch.

Cynthia graduated from Grier School at Tyrone, Pa., attended Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and is a member of Sigma Gamma. Her fiancé graduated from Michigan State University and is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity.

Brownies in Action

Residents of St. Elizabeth Briarbank were entertained by the newly organized Brownie Troop 111 of St. Hugo of the Hills, Mammie Gleason (left), 93, the oldest woman in the Home; Helen Osier and Agnes Baron are being served refreshments by Christine Singelyn and Cathy Griffith (right).

Harriette Pearson To Wed

HARRIETTE PEARSON

Mrs. J. C. Quatty of Pontiac announces the engagement of her niece Harriette Pearson of Royal Oak, to Martin F. Becker of Detroit.

The bride-elect attended Wayne State University. She is employed by The Averill Press as production manager. Her fiancé attended Indiana Technical College and Chrysler Institute of Engineering.

An April wedding is planned.

Leaving for Camp Oakland

Couples leaving for Camp Oakland for a holiday party are (from left) Dr. and Mrs. William Peirce of Suffield Road and Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson of Colonial Court, Birmingham. The Kappa Alpha Theta group sponsored a party for children at the home.

Tamara Bock Weds Robert Garrett

The marriage of Tamara Bock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bock of Juniper Court, Birmingham, to Robert Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Garrett of Pontiac, was announced by her parents at an open house on Sunday.

The wedding took place Nov. 4 at the First Baptist Church of Lake Orion. The couple will reside in Pontiac.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

'Hunters Jamboree'

Plum Hollow Golf Club will open the season with a "Hunters Jamboree" the evening of Jan. 13. Serving as host and hostess will be Mr. and Mrs. B. J. McMullen of Lakeland Lane, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shaw of Detroit. A large collection of bear skins and elk heads will adorn the clubhouse. The menu will consist of wild game such as duck, bear, venison, pheasant, rabbit and muskrat.

Eddie Shick will provide the music for dancing. Members with early reservations include the J. E. McKennas, Oscar Kolberg, Harold Oldhams, Lawrence Martens and the George Dowleys.

Wishing the New Year In Forest Lake Country Club was all aglow Saturday evening as members celebrated New Year's Eve a day early. Mr.

and Mrs. Donald Hacker of Franklin started off the evening with a cocktail party at their home... then off to the club for dinner and dancing. For the late-comers there was a cold buffet table after midnight.

Off to the Slopes

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Graupner of N. Adams Road, Birmingham, spent the holidays at Harbor Springs Ski Lodge as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dale Angell, formerly of Birmingham. One of the highlights of the holiday was a typical German party given by Col. Charles Matheny, portraying the Matheny's life in Munich, Germany.

Texarkana Guests Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kresge of Overhill Road, Bloomfield Township, honored the Henry Dorseys of Texarkana last week at a reception. The Dorseys were houseguests of the Kresges over the holidays.

Busy Season for Localities

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mayhew of N. Williamsbury Road, Bloomfield Village, entertained a group of relatives and friends at the Detroit Athletic Club for dinner and the premiere of El Cid. A few days later they held an open house for neighbors and friends and on Friday entertained at a bridge party and midnight supper. The Mayhews spent New Year's Eve in East Lansing with relatives.

Bride-Elect Honored

Lynn MacCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. MacCracken of Hampton Road, Beverly Hills, was feted at a kitchen show last Thursday given by Martha Koskinen of Bloomfield Glenn, Birmingham. Lynn will become the bride of Ron Troy in February. Among the guests attending were Madelyn Roberts, Jeannie Andrus, Beverly Nimeth, Nora Aldred and Sue Rowe.

(See SUB-SCENES, 2-C)

Football Player Highlights Party

Highlight at the holiday party of Bloomfield Cooperative Nursery was (left) Ollie Spencer of the Detroit Lions. Looking at him with admiration are (from left) Mammie Page, Karen Hall, Steve Eick and Kenny Rogers. In the background is Mrs. John Adams, teacher at the nursery. The school started its enrollment Tuesday for next September. Admission chairman is Mrs. John Costello, 3780 Squirrel Road, Birmingham. The two teachers taking part in helping the two teachers each morning are Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Louis Smith.

Charles D. Grants Honored at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Grant of E. Square Lake Road, Birmingham, two of the nation's most prominent trainers and teachers of advanced horsemanship, were honored at a testimonial dinner in Bloomfield Hills when more than 100 friends gathered to pay tributes of appreciation to the Grants.

The testimonial was organized by the many friends who have known the couple since they first came to Michigan in 1926. The affair was a complete surprise for the honored pair.

Among the many guests from out of town who came especially for the occasion were their daughter, Randie, home from college for the holidays; Mr. Grant's mother, Mrs. Delia Grant; his sister and her husband, the Oscar Wolfes; another sister, Mrs. Stanley Heiden, and her daughter, Susan, all of Chicago; and another sister and her husband, the Ped Eyes who flew from their home in California.

Mrs. Grant's parents, living in Chicago, were unable to make the trip, but sent their congratulations by telephone and telegram.

MANY OF the area's most prominent riders of the past and present attended with their parents, husband and wives. Among the parents were the Irving A. Duffys, Ernest A. Jones', Paul Sabusters, Dave Meiningers, Richard Woodhouses, Stewart Crams, David Giefkes.

Also the Walter B. Booths, Robert J. Tuholskes, Robert Lambert, James M. Jones', Fred Wilsons, Mrs. Norman James, the E. A. Skowbos, Gordon Millers, John D. Scotts, Philip McHugh, Donald Boyd, Arthur B. Dowds and Mrs. Bernadette S. Peter.

MAKING a special trip to Birmingham from out of town to honor the Grants were the Karl E. Scotts, Frank H. Duffys, Herbert Lillieys, Emery Richards, Dr. and Mrs. John Rawling, Mark Dowies, Mrs. Fred Kitting, Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Butt and Lt. Arthur B. Dowd Jr.

Couple Entertained at Reception

MR. AND MRS. HARRY QUAGLINE

"Pahdnerns' Paradise Ranch", home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hopkins was the setting for a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quagline, who were married Dec. 16 at North Congregational Church. Mrs. Quagline is the former Pearlie Booth of Castle Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Al Phillips of Windsor, sister of the bride; and Michel Quagline of Detroit, brother of the bridegroom.

MRS. QUAGLINE appeared in an Oriental ensemble made for her in Hong Kong of white and gold brocade. A small white headpiece secured her face veil and she pinned a white orchid on her purse.

For guests with tapping toes, Frank Christy's Trio supplied the dance music. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were served to the 100 guests with a complete dinner at midnight.

AMONG THE guests attending the gala affair were Mrs. Nancy Grennan, Frank leave this month for California. Leo LaFleur, Mrs. Lisa Acapulco and Ft. Lauderdale, Elva Schleicher, Henry Bourdale for a three-month wedding, the James Greenes, James ding trip. Upon return, they Motts and the Marino Zapicos, will reside in the Birmingham Mr. and Mrs. Quagline will area.