

Attendants Gowned In Scarlet Velvet

Orchard Lake Community Church was the setting Dec. 23 for the marriage of Kathryn Irene Olmstead to Rudolph Ernest Radocy. Dr. Alfred D. Grey performed the 3 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 126 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. and Mrs. Lester E. Olmstead of Orchard Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf V. Radocy of Conneville, Pa.

THE BRIDE wore an off-white traditional gown of delustrated satin designed with a scalloped neckline, fitted bodice long tapering sleeves. A headpiece of pearls and crystals secured her waist length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and holly.

Elizabeth Olmstead served as maid of honor and Mrs. David

Webb was matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Sheila Murphy. They wore scarlet velvet gowns with matching caps.

FLOWER girls, Eileen Rose and Shirley Jean Rose, wore white nylon organza dresses and carried baskets of holly with red ribbon and red carnation petals.

Richard Ruhlen stood as best man and ushers were David Webb and Charles Mills. Ring bearers were Stanley and John Robbin.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Olmstead chose a blue-green brocade dress with velvet trim and matching accessories. Mother of the bridegroom selected a beige and gold embroidered dress with matching accessories.

Heirloom Lace Cap Worn by Mary Bird

Mary Louise Bird and Stephen Owen Stubbs were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris performed the 4:30 ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bird of Lyonhurst Drive, Birmingham; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Stubbs of LaSser Road, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE wore a Bianchi wedding gown of ivory Peau d'angle fashioned with a scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves. The skirt was trimmed with a side drape of applique velvet leaves outlined with crystal beads and seed pearls ending in a chapel train. A fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place with an heirloom lace cap worn by her grandmother and mother. Her flowers were white roses.

The bride's twin sister, Margaret Ann Bird, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Julie Stubbs, Linda Burkman, Virginia Hantoon, and Mrs. David L. Kilborn.

HER FIVE attendants were gowned alike in peacock velvet and wore wreaths of matching velvet leaves on their hair. They carried white possetias and ivory. Leonard G. Miller stood as best man and seating the guests were David C. Bird, David L. Kilborn, Charles W. Dave, Ned S. Bearden and Richard D. Bergesen.

Mrs. Bird wore an ensemble of Bois de rose and taupe silk brocade with demi fit jacket over a matching sheath dinner gown. Mrs. Stubbs wore a bouffant gown of silk satin patterned with metallic sprays of gold and brown.

GUESTS WERE greeted at Orchard Lake Country Club following the ceremony. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Puerto Rico. For traveling, Mary wore a blue suit of Italian silk with matching accessories.

The couple will reside in Birmingham.

New Year's at Oakland

A Toast to the West Indies

Way out in the West Indies where the gentle Caribbean breeze makes one forget the frigid winds of Detroit, three couples raised their glasses in salute to a group at Forest Lake Country Club. A pact they made before leaving . . . to toast one another at exactly 10 minutes after midnight, New Year's Eve.

The lucky six are Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of Meadow Lake, Mr. and Mrs. John Wreford and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adam, both of Franklin. They will visit Puerto Rico, Barbados, Grenada, then on to Trinidad to finish out a two-week vacation.

Cast Entertained Sunday

The Maynard Andreaes' home on Ridgewood Road, Bloomfield Hills, was in full swing Sunday evening when they entertained at a New Year's Eve party. Among the guests attending were members of the cast of "Eye Eye Birdie". They included Gretchen Wyler, niece of the Andreaes; her husband, Shepard Coleman, musical director; Mike Tom, production manager; Marilyn Holland, Dick Patterson, Dick Gautier, and Louise Quick. Others attending from the Birmingham area were the Robert C. Fishers, L. R. Twymans, Ernest A. Jones, Dean Coffins, Semon Knudsen and the Frank Egans. A late buffet supper was served.
