

MRS. DAVID GARTON

Bride Wears Blue Brocade

Sara Kate Bartholomew and David Garton were united in marriage last Thursday in St. Dunston's Chapel, Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Robert Patterson officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartholomew of Franklin Road. Her husband is the son of the David Gartons of Sheboygan, Wis.

THE BRIDE wore an ice blue brocade dress with matching hat. She carried gardenias and ivy. Judith Bartholomew, bride's sister, wore a cream silk ensemble and carried chrysanthemums and garter roses. Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Timothy Garton.

Following the 2 o'clock ceremony, guests were greeted at Oakland Hills Country Club.

'A Time for Excellence' Topic at AAUW Meeting

Members of the American Association of University Women will meet for lunch in the Birmingham Community House Wednesday to hear Dr. Lowell Ekland of Michigan State University-Oakland discuss "A Time for Excellence."

Dr. Ekland is associate Dean of Continuing Education at MSU—a university that has given continuing education co-equal status among its objectives.

BECAUSE the college education of the average adult is already obsolete, universities have been assuming the larger role of teaching adults to prepare them for the crucial decisions of survival being faced today.

This is seen to be the answer to complete education of the student in a fast changing world. Of the 75 million adults in the United States, one out of three is participating in some kind of adult education course.
