It's that THRIFTY Formfit feeling!

142 West Maple Road, Birmingham
Branches in Royal Oak, Ferndale, Mt. Clemens

What a tragedy that so few of us, and only at intervals, stand back and away from the trivia and the hurry and the rush so that we may appraise life itself as a greatest blessing... life, that enables one to experience so many good things, (even though one may go through trials and tribulations) not only enjoyment of material things, but for the "thrills of soul" as well!

Volunteers Needed

With the rapid growth of interest in the Detroit Institute of Arts and its activities, a need has arisen for volunteer assistance in various aspects of the Museum's work. A volunteers committee of the Detroit Museum of Art Founders Society is now being formed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lawrence A. Fleischman.

Cherie Barron's Troth Revealed

Dr. and Mrs. W. Harold Barron of Cranbrook Crossroad, Birmingham, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Cherie Lynn, to Charles Wingard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Wingard of Detroit.

The bride-elect attended Port Huron College of Nursing and is a graduate of the Liggett School.

Sophomore at WMU

Katherine Smith, daughter of Mrs. M. L. Smith, 1084 Abbey Road, Birmingham, is a sophomore in the 2-year cooperative secretarial curriculum at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo. Along with this program she is also working part time. Katherine was a 1960 graduate of Birmingham Seaholm High School.

On Dean's List

Ann Kathryn Fulton of Birmingham was named to the dean's list of University of Georgia School of Home Economics.

Newlywed Westbrooks Honeymooning in NYC

Rebecca Brynton Filkins and Donald Eugene Westbrook were united in marriage Dec. 23 at St. James Episcopal Church. The Rev. David E. Van Dusen performed the 3 o'clock ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Filkins of Manchester Road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus P. Westbrook of Mt. Pleasant.

MRS. DONALD WESTBROOK

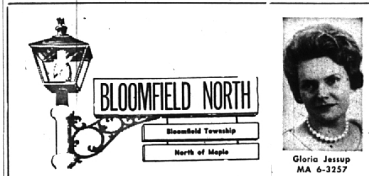

THE BRIDE wore a white silk brocade sheath with matching fur-trimmed empire jacket and a feathered pill-box hat with a small veil. She carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert J. Godfrey served as honor attendant. She wore a red silk faille sheath and a carnation corsage.

Gary L. McConoghy stood as best man and ushers were James R. Filkins and John C. Filkins, twin brothers of the bride.

THE BRIDE'S mother chose a royal blue crepe dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Westbrook chose a blue silk dress.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hunter's Whip in Franklin. The newlyweds are honeymooning in New York City.

Entertain Neighbors In Wood Lake Hills

WOOD LAKE HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mansky of Kingsgate Road invited all the residents—and residents to be—of Wood Lake Hills for a post-Christmas party Friday at their home.

DEVON BROOK—Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. John R. McDermott of Devon Brook Road took their daughter Jackie, 16, out for dinner and to her first play. It was "Eye Bye, Birdie," the current hit at the Fisher Theater.

Dr. and Mrs. Mack Nessel of Barlyn Lane invited a few friends to join them at a small New Year's Eve party.

Mrs. Lawton M. Blitz of Devon Brook and her daughter Mary Anne, a freshman at MSU, were co-hostesses at a Christmas party recently for six little girls at their neighborhood.

The little misses were Mike and Tracy Weiden, Gail Griffin, Ann Wingerter, Joan Miller and Susan Strimberger.

The guests enjoyed hot chocolate, cookies and cake, a short song-fest, some games and a gift from Santa.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Bull of Bradford Boulevard gave an open house Friday for some 60 guests.

The party was given in honor of their houseguests. They were Mrs. John Ginder of Columbia City, Ind. (Mrs. Bull's aunt), and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilson of Whittier, Calif. All three guests have been spending the holidays with the Bulls.

WING LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Remington of Wing Lake Road entertained 20 couples at their annual New Year's Eve party.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. James J. Dugan of Thurber Road gave a holiday dinner party. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fairchild, Mr. and Mrs. George Kiskling, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Stocker, the E. J. Sampsons, the Godfrey Briefs, Mr. and Mrs. Verne L. Sarge, Mrs. Mary Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Remington.

KNOB HILL—Mrs. Gene Story of Van Ness Drive invited friends and neighbors for a "Drop-In-Coffee" last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Deaton Jr. of Mark Hopkins Drive entertained 30 guests at an afternoon cocktail party last Saturday. The party was given in honor of their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pettigrew of Columbus, Ohio. The Pettigrew's two teenage children, Diane and Jeff, accompanied their parents on the weekend trip to Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wiley of Bethelham, Pa., have returned to their home after a holiday visit with their daughter, non-in-law and grandson Mr. and Mrs. Blair Scanlon and Blair Jr. of Van Ness Drive.

WESTWOOD MANOR—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pappert of Holly Road asked a few friends to join them Sunday to wish in the new year.

CHALMERS LAKE—The Humbert M. Mularoni home on Clarendon Road was a lively place Christmas Day. All of the Mularoni children were home with their children and gathered for Christmas dinner at Grandma's.

To quote Mrs. Mularoni, "It was really something—nine children and the oldest one was FOUR!"

Former Wing Lake residents, Mr. and Mrs. James Helen (Mrs. former Mularoni) were houseguests

SARAH ANDERSON

U of M Students To Wed in July

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Anderson of Winnetka, Ill., announced the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Ann, to Richard Nelson Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Boyd of Forbes Drive, Bloomfield Hills, Friday at a family party.

Miss Anderson, who graduated from New Trier High School in Winnetka, is a senior at the University of Michigan. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. Her fiancé is also a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.
