"This time we missed any bad snow storms so our driving was quite pleasant," says Mrs. Galley Hobbs of the family's Yule Trip to Cape Girardeau, Mo. She and her husband and daughter Gail spent the holidays with Mrs. Hobbs' mother, aunt and sister. The three-day visit was much too

Westchester WNEGA Names Contest Winners

WESTCHESTER—Many residents of the village took part recently in the Westchester WNEGA-sponsored holiday decoration contest.

Alice Burlingame, columnist for The Excelsior, and Mrs. Seth Slavson were judges for the contest that included three categories—religious, juvenile and general. A first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 was awarded to the winners who were judged on a point basis. Many honorable mentions were given.

The project was organized by the civic improvement committee, headed by Mrs. Vernon Fitch.

FIRST AND second prize winners in the religious category were given to the Dominic Januzis, 2920 Farmingdale and the Robert Lions whose annual Yule party on Dec. 20—at Holly this year—resulted in a nicer Christmas for many.

Each of the 25 couples who attended brought a child's gift and the presents were then given to the youngsters at the Baptist's Children's Home on 13 Mile Road.

Winners of the club's annual fruit cake sale donated their profits to help fill baskets for Southfield's needy families.

To make the Lion's happy party even gayer, masses of orchids and lilies were flown in for the event. Identical first and second prize winners in the fruit sale were Dr. Neil Thruwacher and Roy Johnston.

Suitable postcards to Christmas was the sking trip made by MSUO student Linda Doering and Sally Stevenson, who attends Stevens College. They spent the last few days of the old year at Lewiston, Me.

The two girls stayed with Sally's grandmother, Linda, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wendell Doering of Detroit. Sally's parents are the Robert Stevensons, Jr. of San Diego.

IN THE JUVENILE category, first and second awards went to the George A. Wilson Jr., 299 Westbrook and the Harry G. Forrests, 2793 Heathfield.

Honorable mentions: the Paul H. Coleman, 284 Westbrook; the Richard B. Mangner, 2945 Middlebury; the Fay Knapps, 354 Dalebrook; the W. G. Hancock, 3535 Middlebury; the Henry F. Schools, 3245 Middlebury; the M. R. Swearingens, 2820 Berkshire.
