Name Smith To Auto Club Directorship

J. Thomas Smith, 459 Martell, Bloomfield Hills, has been named a director of Automobile Club of Michigan. It was announced last week by Mervyn G. Gaskin, president.

Smith, an attorney since 1929, is chairman of the board of Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago's Detroit branch. He was assistant U. S. Attorney in Detroit from 1936 until 1940, in charge of the civil division. He becomes the fifth Birmingham area man currently serving on the Auto Club board of directors. Smith's directorships include: Grace Hospital, Metropolitan Detroit YMCA board, Michigan Employers' Association, Detroit Ordinance District, Board of Contract Review and Michigan Post, American Ordinance Association. He is a trustee of the National Sanitation Foundation. He is a member of American, Michigan and Detroit Bar Associations, Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, and the Newcomen Society in North America. He is a past president of Bloomfield Hills Country Club and has been a director of the Detroit Athletic Club. Other area men on the Auto Club board are Roy M. Hood, Frank J. Howlett and William G. Walters, of Birmingham, and Clarence E. Otter, of Bloomfield Hills.

French Glo Valet Introduces New Cleaning Process

Sam Simon, president of French Glo Valet, 532 N. Woodward, Birmingham, has announced that today will be the grand opening of a new dry cleaning process in his establishment.

The process, called "One-Hour Valetone Dyeing," includes cleaning, spotting and pressing. Simon says that the Deluxe French Glo Process, which includes hand cleaning and hand finishing, will still be available.

During the grand opening, free balloons and coloring books will be given to children, and ball-point pens to the adults.
