

You are old-fashioned if you remember (and hanker for) some of the various canned foods that were preserved and canned right in the home. There was something about going to the fruit cellar to bring up foods whose luscious fragrance and haunting odors at canning time really whet one's appetite. And how pleased would the woman who canned the food when praised! (It took lots of work, too.)

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, January 11, 1962

SECTION C

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Busy Lines

Telephone lines are bound to be busy in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills the afternoon and evening of Jan. 31. That's the day the University of Michigan Birmingham Alumnae Club is giving its series of telephone bridge parties, all in the interest of the club's scholarship fund. Currently the association sends five students to the University. Mrs. Hobart D. Andrea, chairman, called her committee together for a kick-off luncheon at Kingsley Inn.

Among those who will open their homes for the benefit are Mrs. Carl Abbott, president; Mrs. Russell Strickland, Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot, Mrs. Edson Pool, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham, Mrs. Robert Klintonworth, Mrs. W. E. Mosher Jr., Mrs. Fred Henry, Mrs. A. A. Appford, Mrs. Luther Leader, Mrs. Sylvester Trythall, Mrs. Edwin O. George, Mrs. Frederick Adams and Mrs. Stewart Cram.

Committee members working on the benefit are Mrs. Morton J. Bell, Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Mrs. William Bird, Mrs. C. F. Fischer and Mrs. Albert Little.

Mrs. Brewster to Entertain

Mrs. Benjamin Brewster will open "Sunny Bend," her Bloomfield home on Monday to honor two men who are doing much to spread knowledge of the opera in this area. Honored at the tea will be Professor Glenn D. McGeoch of the University of Michigan School of Music, who will teach "Music of the Opera," an adult education course to be sponsored by the Cranbrook Music Guild, and Lloyd G. Grinnell, long known for his efforts on behalf of the musical arts.

The guest list includes many who have shown an interest in the musical arts such as Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. George Romney, Mrs. Harvey Kresge, Mrs. Teruko Yamasaki, Mrs. Preston Weir, Mrs. Elliot Saarinen and many others.

Assisting Mrs. Brewster at the tea will be members of the Cranbrook Music Guild education committee including Mrs. Leroy Kiefer, Mrs. John W. Sanders, Mrs. Denton Anderson and Mrs. Frank Ferron.

The opera course, first on a university level to be held in this area, will consist of eight lectures to be given in Cranbrook School beginning Feb. 14.

'Volunteers for Headquarters Tea'

Mrs. Howard J. Liverance of Hawthorne Road will open her home Friday from 2 to 4 p.m. for a special "Volunteers for Headquarters Tea" honoring area women who have worked for Oakland County Republican Headquarters this past year. Those serving on the tea committee are Mrs. Guy Holloway of Bloomfield, Mrs. Joe Forman of Charing Way and Mrs. Charles L. Lyle of Hillcrest.

Busy Month at the Club

Detroit Athletic Club's January dinner, dancing, floor show starting on the 20th, the DAC Bowlers' big dinner-dance to honor their wives on the 27th and the club's "International Night" on the 31st are the mixed group parties to add verve and excitement at the club this month. Among members in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area who have early table reservations are the Earl Loves, Harold W. Smalls, Edward Sammuts, John C. Kinsels, George LaHodneys and the A. F. Ayers.

Setting the last half of the month in motion, however, will be three stag events. The DAC's annual election of directors and annual meeting on the 16th will be serious business on the one side, and social on the other, what with visiting over a buffet available during noon to 8 p.m. hours, the polls are open.

The DAC Bowlers are completing details for their Jan. 27 feasting, and the club's "International Night" on the 31st is to feature "A Night in Spain" with food and decor in that mood.

Rockette Curlers Slate Tournament

The Detroit Rockettes of the Detroit Curling Club will hold their 5th annual Invitational Bonus on Jan. 25 and 26 at the Club on Forest Avenue. Some 24 rinks, or teams, will compete in the tournament which is being chaired by Mrs. Laurence Herman of Fox Valley Road, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Joseph Giroux of Grosse Pointe.

Eileen LeZotte To Wed in July

At a cocktail party, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. LeZotte of Royal Oak announced the engagement of their daughter, Eileen Mary, to Robert J. Petix, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Petix of Bellville Trail, Birmingham.

The bride-elect received her bachelor of science degree from Mercy College and is now completing a year of Dietetic Internship at Harper Hospital. Her fiancé attended John Carroll University in Cleveland.

A July wedding is planned.

Elected Secretary

Brenda Maynard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Maynard of Wilminton Drive, has been elected secretary of Alpha Phi national sorority pledge class at Denison University, where she is a freshman.

Members of The Village Woman's Club are busy working on the blood bank they are sponsoring for the American Red Cross Jan. 17 at the Community House. Active members are (from left) Mrs. A. C. Jorden of Pembroke Drive, committee member; Mrs. S. Tenney McGraw of Kimberley Drive and Mrs. S. W. Trythall of Willow Lane, co-chairmen.

Calling All Bridge Players!

University of Michigan Birmingham alumnae club gathered at the Kingsley Inn for a kick-off luncheon in conjunction with the club's telephone bridge parties slated for Jan. 31. Committee members include (from left) Mrs. Hobart D. Andrea, chairman; Mrs. William J. Bird and Mrs. C. F. Fischer.

Research League Gathers for Tea

Mrs. Peter M. Wadpherson (left), of Macpherson Drive, Birmingham, welcomes Mrs. Richard Poling for a tea given by the Child Research Center League. Two hundred guests were invited in appreciation of their help on the Yule Shoppe in December. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. George W. Miller of Glenary Circle, Birmingham. Mrs. Macpherson was chairman of the event.

Valparaiso Benefit Planned

Members of Oakland Chapter of Valparaiso University Guild have marked Jan. 19 on their calendar for the group's dessert smorgasbord and card party benefit. Working on the event are (from left) Mrs. Walter Wallace of Melton Drive, Mrs. Ralph Thomson of Arlington Drive and Mrs. Edwin Schreck of Redmere Drive. The benefit will be held 7:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

Village Woman's Club To Sponsor Blood Bank

The Village Woman's Club of Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills will sponsor a blood collection for the American Red Cross at the Birmingham Community House Jan. 17.

A goal of 200 appointments has been set for contributions to the blood bank.

A committee of more than 50 senior and junior club members is soliciting volunteer donors and workers under chairman Mrs. Sylvester Trythall and Mrs. S. Tenney McGraw.

COLLECTION HOURS

will be from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m. and from 5:45 to 8:45 p.m. Appointments can be made by contacting Mrs. Trythall.

1858 Willow Lane, Orchard Lake, (682-2172).

The club sponsored blood bank is the first of two planned by the American Red Cross in the Birmingham area during January. The second bank, scheduled for Jan. 31 will be sponsored by the women of the First Methodist Church under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Chalk.

The collection will be held in the church during the same hours as the first collection. Appointments can be made by contacting Mrs. Chalk, 239 Big Beaver, Birmingham, (MI 4-7213).

IN ANNOUNCING the blood banks, the first since its inception, the Red Cross reminds residents that these are community blood banks. The blood donated will be banked for future use by the donors, their families or through reciprocal replacements arranged by the Red Cross at any hospital in the country.

General information concerning the Red Cross blood program may be obtained by contacting Mrs. J. S. Riccardi, 1124 Birmingham Blvd., Birmingham.

Committee members working on the blood bank include Mrs. Richard Herberich, Mrs. Arthur W. Jordan, Mrs. Robert A. Green, Mrs. Fritz Fasselmann, Mrs. Miller Hanson, Mrs. David Williams and Mrs. James Frederick. Other members are recruiting blood donors.

SERIES TO START

A class in Beginning Conversational Italian will be offered for the first time Tuesday by the Village Woman's Club. The series of 10 classes will be held at 484 W. Maple, from 1 to 2:45 p.m.

Instructor for the course will be Mrs. American Fine Arts. She lived a year and a half in Northwestern Italy when her husband was stationed at Aviano Air Base. The class is open to the public.

FRANKLIN Pure, Curator of Contemporary Art at the Detroit Institute of Arts, will continue his series of "Conversation on Art" with a fourth lecture 10 a.m. Tuesday.

His subject will be "The Anatomy of Sculpture" and will involve a thorough examination of the technical aspects of sculpture; its physical structure, materials and their nature, the how's and why's of the various combinations of these materials, and how the techniques of painting have variously been adapted to the requirements of art and public.

ON FEB. 12, Mr. Page's subject will be "Analyzing and Interpreting a Work of Art: Contemporary American Painting." Selected works will be analyzed in detail, with particular emphasis on group participation.

A few openings at these and subsequent lectures are available. Reservation chairman is Mrs. David H. Lynn.

University Guild Sponsors Party

Valparaiso University Guild is sponsoring a dessert smorgasbord and card party benefit 7:30 p.m. Jan. 19 in the Fellowship Hall of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. Proceeds will go to the University. Gold and bronze, the colors of the University, will be carried out in the decorations.

Co-chairman for the event are Mrs. Ralph Thomson and Mrs. Edwin Schreck. Assisting will be Mesdames Arthur Bremner, Alvin Knorr, Robert McKee, Lee Mohr, Norman Phillips, Herbert Selden, Ernest Sheehan, Harold Twyman, Werner Holzman and E. W. Malton.

OFFICERS of the guild are Mrs. Walter Wallace, president; Mrs. H. V. Hodges, vice president; Mrs. Edwin Schreck, secretary; Mrs. Robert Outrow, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. B. Marks, financial secretary and Mrs. W. E. Redfern, treasurer.

Junior League Meets

The Junior League of Birmingham will meet Wednesday in small groups to discuss problems of league interest. Opening homes will be Mesdames Arthur Bouterbaugh, Robert Denyul, Clayton Gordon, Charles Duryea, Milton Coulson, Harry Swan, Edward Lecher, Daniel Chapin, Frederick Erb, John Bagby, Henry Dahlquist Jr., William Baldwin, William Douglas and Miss Mary Taylor.

Delegates Chosen

Region IV of the Junior League of America will meet Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Toledo. Delegates from the Junior League of Birmingham will be Mrs. Roy G. Leitch Jr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell.

Kathryn Boles Weds Lt. Stephen E. Pew

The Washington Memorial Chapel in Valley Forge, Pa., was the setting Dec. 22 for the marriage of Kathryn Dezer Boles to Lt. Stephen E. Pew, USMC. Following the 4:10 ceremony, a reception was held at the Tally-Ho Inn in Valley Forge.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scudder Boles of Westport, Conn. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Fred C. Pew Jr., of Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Kathryn wore a gown of white peau de soie featuring a round neckline and long tapering sleeves. A crown of lace secured her veil of silk illusion.

A crown of lace secured her veil of silk illusion. She wore a green velvet frock. She wore a white fur crown and held a matching fur muff covered with holly. David Pew served as best man for his brother and Anthony W. Pew, Charles S. Boles and Lt. Gilbert Millhollin ushered.

MRS. STEPHEN E. PEW

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boles wore a blue silk ensemble with matching accessories. Mother of the bridegroom selected a light green lace dress.

The newlyweds spent the Christmas holidays with the bridegroom's parents in Bloomfield Hills. They will live in Quantico, where Lt. Pew is stationed.

International Flavor Highlights Concert

The January concert of the Birmingham Musicals will feature International Day with emphasis on Japan 1:30 p.m. today at the Birmingham Community House. Chairman of the day is Mrs. Howard E. Hallas and committee members are Mrs. Donald Bigge, Mrs. Clifford Nelson and Mrs. Oscar Gjelten.

Featured artists will be Natalie Ring, Oween Pirtanen, and Yoko Asaki, pianist; with guest artist Fumiko Takata, dancer, assisting. Miss McKaig is soloist at St. James Episcopal Church, having studied in Columbus. She attended Cincinnati College and Columbia Opera Workshop in New York.

MRS. TERUKO YAMASAKI of W. Greenwich Drive, Birmingham, graduated with a bachelor of music degree from the University of Southern California. She received a three-year fellowship at the Graduate School in New York where she studied with Carl Frieberg. She became a member of Birmingham Musicals in 1952.

Fumiko Takata of Detroit is the daughter of a Tea House owner in Japan and has danced there for a second generation. She mentions Japanese American and arrived in America to live after World War II.

FOR THE tradition of tea following the program, Mrs. Alfred G. Ruppel, chairman, has asked Mrs. Bernard Bruns, Mrs. James Connor, Mrs. M. G. Tammen, Mrs.

WHILE TEA is being served, guests will have an opportunity to question summaries of industry tables about entrance requirements, expenses, scholarship opportunities, curricula and transportation.

Mrs. W. P. Harris, chairman of the day, and a Bryn Mawr graduate, has issued invitations to high school and preparatory school principals and counselors, and to all interested girls and their parents living in the greater Detroit area.

Members of the Committee for the day will include club presidents and alumnae representatives from each of the seven colleges.

SEVERAL on the committee from Birmingham include Mesdames John Judd, George Hiltner, Herbert Fisher, James Harding, Harry Schmidt, Richard LeFevre, Edward Reid and E. Stephen Beard.

INCLUDED in our show will be Clopatra, portrayed by Mrs. Charles Falk, coming down the Nile in a profusion of bubbles. Mrs. Raymond Reid will turn herself into Lucretia Borgia, in love, while Mrs. James Irwin is a beautiful Southern Belle.

Brendah will come straight from the Middle Ages and Queen Isabella will be found in Christ-opher Columbus' Gambling Casino. The Greek Vestal Virgins, Dance Hall girls and Mrs. Paul Revere, portrayed by Mrs. Sinclair Boynton will all be on hand to greet guests.

Admission to the evening show will be by donation, the proceeds of which will be donated to the Community House.

MEMBERS may vote for new officers prior to the luncheon. Candidates are for vice president, Mrs. Robert Jessel and Mrs. John Shipley; for secretary, Mrs. Richard Lindgren and Mrs. Wm. Mikulas; for treasurer, Mrs. John Chapa and Mrs. Edward Talbot; where Mrs. Frederick Betz, now vice president will become president for the spring term.

B'ham Women's Club Schedules Meetings

The Birmingham Women's Club have slated three meetings on Tuesday. The Detroit Edison Company will discuss "Freezing". The Fine Arts Department will meet for luncheon 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Lake, where Mrs. Carl Biber will give a book review. The Literature Department will meet at the home of Mrs. L. S. Gregory where Mrs. Clyde Wilbur will discuss "In These Shoes".

Members may vote for new officers prior to the luncheon. Candidates are for vice president, Mrs. Robert Jessel and Mrs. John Shipley; for secretary, Mrs. Richard Lindgren and Mrs. Wm. Mikulas; for treasurer, Mrs. John Chapa and Mrs. Edward Talbot; where Mrs. Frederick Betz, now vice president will become president for the spring term.

THE WASHINGTON Memorial Chapel in Valley Forge, Pa., was the setting Dec. 22 for the marriage of Kathryn Dezer Boles to Lt. Stephen E. Pew, USMC. Following the 4:10 ceremony, a reception was held at the Tally-Ho Inn in Valley Forge.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scudder Boles of Westport, Conn. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Fred C. Pew Jr., of Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Kathryn wore a gown of white peau de soie featuring a round neckline and long tapering sleeves. A crown of lace secured her veil of silk illusion.

A crown of lace secured her veil of silk illusion. She wore a green velvet frock. She wore a white fur crown and held a matching fur muff covered with holly. David Pew served as best man for his brother and Anthony W. Pew, Charles S. Boles and Lt. Gilbert Millhollin ushered.

MRS. STEPHEN E. PEW

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boles wore a blue silk ensemble with matching accessories. Mother of the bridegroom selected a light green lace dress.

The newlyweds spent the Christmas holidays with the bridegroom's parents in Bloomfield Hills. They will live in Quantico, where Lt. Pew is stationed.