Jamaica-Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Frick of Buckingham Road, Birmingham, wave to the cameraman as they arrive at Miami Airport. Following a brief stop-over in Miami, they journeyed on to Jamaica.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes
By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1558

Winter is really here in Michigan now, so naturally all we see and read about in the fashion mags, are the designers' spring collections and what's new for the cruise. Small consolation for stay at homes is the fact that it is supposedly no longer chic to acquire a tan. The pale look of a few years ago is with us again so it's back to sooty eyelashes and our tangee lipstick!

Bridesville
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boyer of Ferndale announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha Ann to Donald James Patterson of Lake Park, Birmingham. The bride elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is presently teaching in Livonia. The groom whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Patterson, will receive his doctorate in mechanical engineering from the University this June. A summer wedding is planned.

Tree Burner
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Parratt entertained at a twelfth night party in their Bloomfield Hills home last Saturday night.

Rally Round Night
Members of St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook have scheduled their annual dinner dance for Jan. 27. This year's formal party will be the Camelot Ball in the Great Hall on Lone Pine road and even members of King Arthur's Court will be there.

Ladies' Day
Mrs. Dean Coffin will entertain at luncheon tomorrow at 11:00. The early hour was set because guests will travel across town to the Players to see Theater Art's presentation of an original musical comedy, "House of Beauty" (written by a member, Mrs. J. D. Sheets) Mrs. Coffin directed the show which deals with the rollicking goings on in a very plush beauty salon.

Ski Breeze
Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Campbell spent last week end on Crystal Lake. Their skiing buddies included the Richard Halsted, the Ronald Kasperzaks, and the Charles Wilsons.

Leaving Town
Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Weed left last week for their winter home at DeRay Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Graham John Graham will spend two weeks in Hawaii and in February have planned a visit to Puerto Rico. Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Morse will fly to Hawaii, then take to the high seas for a trip to Hong Kong and Tokyo.

Susanne Looney Weds W. H. Landis

Susanne Mary Looney and William H. Landis were united in marriage Dec. 16 at Grace Lutheran Church. The Rev. Richard C. Stuckmeyer officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Howard M. Looney of Pontiac and the late Mrs. Looney. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Landis of Derby Road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of white rosepointe pattern French lace and tulle over satin designed with a basque bodice and chapel train. A cap of tulle and lace secured her silk illusion veil. She carried white carnations and camellias.

Jeanne Looney served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Edith Juiliver, Sandra Hufon and Mrs. Jack Nicholas.

Stephen Landis stood as best man and ushers were Paul Trivette, Jack Nicholas and Jon McClure.
