

Ann Elizabeth Weddell Weds Thomas Beuthien

MRS. THOMAS BEUTHIEN

Ann Elizabeth Weddell and Thomas Michael Beuthien were united in marriage Dec. 27 at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. The Rev. Carl Sayers performed the 7:30 ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James H. Weddell of Holland Street, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beuthien of Yorkshire Road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown of white peau de soie with an embroidered bodice and chapel length train. A crystal tiara secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and gardenias. Karin Kesler served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Becky Bricker, Susan Weddell and Linda Greenbach. They wore gowns of red taffeta and hats of white velvet. Bouquets consisted of baby mums with red and green holly.

Carl Beuthien stood as best man and ushers were Richard Ramsdell, Byron Swedfeger and William Gilbert.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Weddell chose a royal blue satin sheath with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother selected a green organza over beige taffeta sheath.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. The bride changed into a brown wool sheath with matching accessories for her wedding trip to northern Michigan.

Upon return, the couple will live in Lansing.

Wind Quintet To Be Featured

As the third concert in its 10th Anniversary season, the Cranbrook Music Guild will present the Detroit Symphony Wind Quintet Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. in Cranbrook House.

Composed of outstanding members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Quintet consists of Albert Tinton, flute; Arno Mariotti, oboe; Paul Schaller, clarinet; Charles Strahl, bassoon; and Robert Fries, French horn.

Greeting guests at the concert will be Mr. and Mrs. George D. Miller, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Perron. Pouring at the tea tables during the "Afterglow" following the concert will be Mrs. William Bird, Mrs. Edmund Pratt, Mrs. Graham Shimnick and Mrs. Leroy Kiefer.

Newlywed R. W. Kellys To Reside in Florida

MRS. ROBERT W. KELLY

Rosemarie Collins Honored at Party

Rosemarie Collins of Bryn Mawr Road was honored at a surprise dinner dance "Sweet Sixteen" birthday party at Sylvan Glen Country Club. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Collins.

Attending the party were Sue Fisher, Janet Balmer, Sue Simmons, Ginny Hizar, Marilyn Watson, Randy Sims, Sue Irish, Lou Turf, Pete King, Mike Williams, John VanderRoest, Ed Overton, Skip Hassett, Jeff Reutter, John Thomson and the E. F. Juhendts.

The Chapel at St. James Episcopal Church was the scene last Tuesday for the marriage of Carolyn Ann Menewich and Robert William Kelly. Dr. Kenneth Gass performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Menewich of Gordon Lane, Birmingham; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Kelly of Royal Oak.

THE BRIDE wore her twin sister's gown of white silk organza appliqued with Belgian lace motifs, chapel length train and a large organza rose at the waist. An organza rose secured her elbow length veil of silk illusion. She carried shattered white carnations.

The bride's twin sister, Mrs. Warren Miedke, served as matron of honor. She wore a white and gold brocade street length dress and carried gold chrysanthemums.

EDWARD Baldwin stood as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Red Run Golf Club.
