Perhaps, at least in our middle west, a vast majority of daily salutations between friends and acquaintances is: "Hi, how-are-yuh?" And almost invariably the reply is: "Fine, thank you." To be exact on this subject, does the question cover the health, morals, happiness, and economic security of the one questioned... If so, is "Fine, thank you" a correct answer? If so, there are many paragons among us.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES D. PARKER

Christ Church Cranbrook Scene of Afternoon Rites

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting Dec. 27 for the marriage of Susanne Gay Hinde and James Dunbar Parker. The Rev. Robert Patterson performed the 5:30 ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Hinde of Colonial Way, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Parker of Edina, Minn. The bride's gown was white de-lustered taffeta designed with long tapering sleeves, a len con lace around the neckline and medallions of lace on the skirt. A headress of alenon lace secured her fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid.

CHERYL Joy Hinde, sister of the bride, served as honor attendant; and Jane Alice Parker, sister of the bridegroom, was a bridesmaid.

They wore red satin sheaths with three quarter length sleeves and square necklines. Attendants carried white carnations and holly leaves in a spray arrangement. John Spiker stood as best man and usher; were Richard Holtcamp and Edwin Schunk. Mother of the bride chose a turquoise silk faille dress and Mrs. Parker selected a beige brocade ensemble.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago, the newweds will live in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Middleton of Puritan Road, Birmingham, announce the Dec. 22 marriage of their daughter, Irene, to Michael V. Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flynn of Pontiac.
