We'll have to admit that when it comes to raising money at charity affairs, New York cannot be topped. At a wof of a dinner there last week, 24.2 million dollars were given by ONLY 140 guests! What a guest list that must have been! Six gave over a million dollars. But we're just as proud of our local hard working women and their efforts, which brings us around to:

Girlie Talk
 Three little brothers in Birmingham are now boasting of their brand new sister. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Loud added Laura Montgomery to the family roster last week.

Muchas Gracias
 Mrs. Lee Keating entertained her Christ Child dinner dance committee for last Fall at a "thank you" coffee yesterday.

Early Valentines
 Mrs. Miller Bushnell had the season's first Valentine party in the form of a luncheon and bridge do in her Bloomfield Hills home.

sions. Last Saturday and this they invited friends for dinner and entertainment of their choice.
Triple Treat
 The William Tehoys have three reasons for celebrating Christmas. First, because of the day itself, second it's Mrs. T.'s birthday and third, it's their wedding anniversary. They spent the long Holiday in Chicago with their children.

Here Today
 Mr. and Mrs. Hank Nolte had barely time to get settled here in their home on Quorton Road when they were notified that it was time to pack up again. Their next move is to Philadelphia. The Francis Moriaritys are heading for Findlay, Ohio. The Norman Christies have left for Switzerland as have the G. M. Hartleys. The M. B. Brookfields are house hunting in New York as are the Gordon Getzingers.

Sunny Cal
 Mrs. W. M. Purves and Mrs. R. G. English will spend the next two months in Santa Barbara, California.

Building Inspector On Job in B'ham

Richard Schlosser began his duties this week as Birmingham's new building inspector. Schlosser, 38, was hired earlier this month to fill the $5,500-a-year, job vacated several weeks ago with the resignation of Andrew Butt. A Pontiac resident, Schlosser had been the building official in Commerce Township for almost four years before accepting the Birmingham position.

USE ECCENTRIC CLASSIFIED ADS FOR BEST RESULTS

Ever try to give a cat away?

It's almost impossible. Kittens, yes. Fully grown cats, of course not! That is, unless you advertise to the thousands of Birmingham-Bloomfield families who read The Birmingham Eccentric.
 It's easy to find a happy home for your aging kitty. Birminghamites have learned that you can accomplish wonders with The Eccentric WANT ADS.
 There's a good reason for that. The WANT ADS are Birmingham's most popular meeting place for buyers and sellers of nearly every kind of useful goods and services—popular because they're inexpensive and effective.
 When you have anything to sell—write, call or come in and see a WANT AD taker. She'll help you write an ad that will work.

Back to our original proposition. If you're having trouble with a cat—try hunting a new home for him with The Birmingham Eccentric WANT ADS! (We'd probably, as a last resort, take him ourselves, just to keep our record clear!)
