Local Residents Visit Jamaica Plantations

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Mr. and Mrs. Ian Beaton of Clunbury Drive along with their youngsters, Scot, 6, and Lynda, 9, flew by jet to Miami and then took the British Overseas Air Line to Jamaica. While there, they stayed at the famous Bay Roc Hotel complete with an Olympic-sized swimming pool.

They saw sugar and banana plantations, outdoor food markets — where Jamaicans loaded the banana baskets with ringing calypso music every minute. Each morning, they received a giant wooden tray loaded with American, British and West Indian foods, delivered by a man riding a bicycle with the tray balanced on his head.

Enroute home they stopped off in Ft. Lauderdale for a week.

Getting to be eight is an important point in a young lady's life. So Kathy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meads of W. Maple, invited 15 girls to celebrate last week. The pink and white birthday cake was tempting to guests, Sandy Perkins, Barbara Turner, Linda Heaton, Melanie Mory, Jan Lichis, Irene La Touche, Marguerite Lacher, Maria Bohar, Patty Senn and Susan Kann. Others were Marc Gratch, Karen Weir, Debbie Radtke and Donna Holmes.

four more stores were made at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Straley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison and Dr. and Mrs. William J. Westcott where more goodies were enjoyed.

The final stop for dinner was at the Robert M. Caldwell's where they stayed for the balance of the evening. Just before the end of the evening the host surprised his unsuspecting guests by playing back a tape recording of the evening's conversation.

WESTCHESTER — Mrs. Marvin Katke, vice president of the Michigan division of WNFCA will be the speaker at the Westchester branch on Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gordon Loveland, 501 Westbourne. She will be speaking about the "Planning Stages and Possibilities of Having National Parks in Michigan". Mrs. D. P. Koistinen will also demonstrate "Staircase Perennials". Hosting the afternoon will be Mrs. Ben Franklin, Mrs. Donald King and Mrs. Frank Starr.

MAPLEBROOK — The monthly meeting of the Maplebrook branch of WNFCA will be held Wednesday at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. J. J. Jasper, 159 Russell Place. Co-hosting will be Mrs. K. H. Busha and Mrs. W. K. Moffett. The speaker will be Beth Boursma, who attends Seaholm High School and is one of a group of selected students in the foreign exchange program, "Youth for Understanding", sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. She will show slides and tell about her two-months stay in the Netherlands with two families.

MEADOWLAKE — The board members of the Women's Auxiliary of Meadowlake Farms are giving a bridge luncheon or games party on Feb. 8 at 12:30 to be held at the Woman's Guild Shopping Center on 14 Mile Road, East of Woodward.

Mrs. Jack Suydam, chairman of the affair, says there will be table and door prizes. Mrs. Victor Beer, 6580 Whysall, donation chairman, may be contacted for tickets.

BERKSHIRES — Six couples in the Berkshires held their annual progressive dinner party very recently. They started with hors d'oeuvres and cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Knost.

Panel Discusses TV Advertising

A panel of experts discussed "What's Right with Radio and TV Advertising" at the Tuesday meeting of the Detroit chapter of American Women in Radio and Television.

Denman F. Jacobson of Birmingham, manager of radio station WWJ—the Detroit News, spoke on the station's point of view. Marie Winthrop, chairman of the program moderated the discussion and the following question and answer session. A short business meeting was conducted by Leontine Keane, chapter president.
