

North Adams Residents At Kennel Club's Outing

NORTH ADAMS—Ice and snow didn't halt the enthusiasm of North Adams residents as they gathered for fun trials at Highland Recreation Area with their Labrador retrievers. The group, members of the American Kennel Club, tramped over the many acres at Highland on Sunday putting their dogs through the paces, giving them licensed trial experience. In May and then again in September they meet with other kennel club members and their dogs from all over the country for the big trials.

On the Sunday trek were the William Cayes of Square Lake Road, the Conrad Cliffords of N. Evansdale Road, the Ralph Hubois and Dr. John Foster of Birmingham.

Tony Spina of Squirrel Road, chief photographer of the Detroit Free Press, has just added another treasured photo to his ever-growing prized collection of important people and places.

The latest is a color photo of President Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy and Joseph P. Kennedy with the Seal of the United States in the background. It was taken on the inauguration platform Jan. 20, 1961. The photograph was requested for the Kennedy archives by Joseph Kennedy in a letter to Spina a few months ago. An additional photo was requested at the time and for appreciation the President returned it with a personal postscript.
