Romney

heartedly support. His honesty, patriotism and character are sure winners."—Mrs. Katherine Irwin, Huntington Woods.

"Who is behind G. Romney? He is very vague in his political philosophy—is he liberal or conservative Republican?"—Anonymous.

"A FINE MAN, look what he did for AMC. We need the same thing in Michigan. He's America's top salesman."—Mrs. Patricia Stuart, White Lake Township.

"I admire Mr. Romney's ability and integrity and feel he would make an excellent leader for Michigan who would always fearlessly fight for what is right. I am concerned, though, at his supporting a taxation program that will undercut his efforts to strengthen local government and, most importantly, individual responsibility and initiative. I feel he needs to find the answer within himself for his susceptibility to personal attack. This personal weak point could make him very vulnerable to 'enemy' attacks and distract him from the basic issues."—Anonymous.

"THIS IS A man that knows the problems of the state more closely than most party nominated candidates. He has worked with these problems and understands them. He is a sincere, dedicated man to himself his country and would do much for the State of Michigan. We need him!"—Mrs. Allen Strom, Birmingham.

"I would support and work for Mr. Romney's candidacy despite the fact that I regard myself as a conservative Republican. The man is head and shoulders above any other possibility in the area of public impression of his character and integrity. He will, I believe, be easier to back up wholeheartedly than was the last gubernatorial candidate."—W. O. Koch, Royal Oak.

"I FEEL ROMNEY is the man that Michigan needs as a whole. He will be good for both parties."—Mrs. John R. Crisman, Bloomfield Hills.

"I feel that if Mr. Romney would be a candidate he could win—and that's what counts. I'd be pleased to work for a candidate of the caliber of Mr. Romney."—Paul A. Matchette, Birmingham.

"In the minds of most people I talk to he is the only possible choice."—Mrs. J. Liverance, Birmingham.

"It will be the best hope for Michigan. He is definitely Presidential timber!"—Mrs. George S. Hodges, Bloomfield Hills.

"He is the only man who can win for the Republicans at this time. He will make an excellent governor."—Walter O. Briggs, III, Bloomfield Hills.

"As a person, he is a fine person. He would make a good candidate, but is he a good Republican? What has he done for the party until this time? Would his tax philosophy sell outstate? Would he have been as eager to run as a Democrat for a Con-Con delegate if the Democrats were the major party in Oakland County?"—Anonymous.

"GREAT! AS a governor and President. Stop chewing the Democrat's hat (state income tax). Later they will crucify Romney for increasing taxes, $300 tax on tea created a revolution in 1776."—Jack C. Startha.

3 B'ham Residents Promoted at DB&T

Three Birmingham men are among 30 officers receiving promotions at The Detroit Bank and Trust Co.

Theodore A. Dauer, 3563 Bradford Drive, has been promoted to vice president; Richard J. Thomas, Jr., 4010 Walnut Hill Drive, assistant vice president; and Einar S. Martin, 2750 Binbrook Drive, assistant cashier.

Dauer, a 29-year veteran with the bank, heads the accounting department.

THOMAS, who began his banking career in 1939, is a loan officer at the Woodward-Hamilton office in Birmingham.

Martin joined Detroit Bank and Trust in 1954, and is in the auditing department.

B'ham Teachers To Attend Clinic

Eight Birmingham teachers will attend a one day workshop at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, to improve the communication among high school and university English teachers.

The workshop will be geared towards bringing about a better understanding of the purposes, problems, courses of study, teaching methods and materials in both high school and college English classes.

Dr. John W. Sattler, head of EMU English and Speech Department, is head of the workshop.

Seaholm teachers, Miss Marilyn Arner, Royal Oak, Mrs. Katherine Blunt, 2880 Broadway, Birmingham, Miss Anne Heystek, Royal Oak, Mrs. Shirley Bigelow, 31236 Pierce, Birmingham, Miss Alice Price, 705 Colonial Court, Birmingham, and David Menzies, 1105 E. 14 Mile, Birmingham will attend the workshop.

Mrs. Katherine Peters, Royal Oak and Mrs. Naomi Manaballum, Ferndale will represent Groves.
