MRS. RICHARD WILLIAMS
Williams to Live In Cincinnati

St. John's Episcopal Church in Royal Oak was the scene Dec. 30 for the marriage of Gretchen Sue Hibberlin to Richard Bruce Williams. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. Virginia Rehmer Hibberlin of Brown Street, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charles Williams of Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE BRIDE appeared in a full length ivory delustrated satin brocade designed with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. A veil of illusion fell from a pillow of ivory satin trimmed in orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and variegated holly.

Ginny Hibberlin served as maid of honor and Jack Coons was bridesmaid. The maid of honor was attired in red silk taffeta and the bridesmaid wore apricot silk taffeta. They both wore wreaths of variegated holly and carried cascade bouquets of peppermint carnations and holly.

ROBERT Williams stood as best man and ushers were Fritz Hibberlin and James Panka.

The newlyweds will reside in Cincinnati.

SUBURBAN SCENE

Harold W. Scott is bowling chairman and he and Mrs. Scott will be on hand early to meet the party-goers who generally number some 600.

Feature to spark the late evening is bowling for the ladies on the DAC alleys, the only time in the whole year when women have this privilege.

On the bandstand in the Pontchartrain Room will be the Artie Fields Recording Band to play for dancing. There's to be outstanding entertainment in the adjoining main dining and Georgian Rooms at 10 p.m.

Cocktails at 6 p.m. in the gymnasium to music of strolling players, dinner at 7:30 at league tables, favors for the feminine contingent, midnight snacks in the Abbey are on the program.

League chairmen from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area include Richard S. Kelley, Lawrence A. Freese, Frank Lloyd Smith, John A. Parks, Jr., George W. Rutz, E. Victor Childson and John E. Quirk of Orchard Lake, and George T. Ghazal of Franklin.

That's still ahead; in the immediate past is the DAC's gala opening of the January dinner-floor show which has been continuing this week and will conclude Friday night, the 20th.

Among those at the opener were the Daniel A. Packards in a sixsome with the Forrest A. Hainlines, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Travis; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Flinders in a foursome with the John J. Armstrongs; the J. P. Judds; the George LaHodneys with several guests; Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Sterling in a party of 12; the Arthur C. Jordans and Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Pearse with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wells.

Double Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin celebrated their twin sons' 19th birthday Saturday at the Detroit Athletic Club. Following luncheon, the group went to the Cass Theater to see "New Faces". (Happy birthday Will and Fred).

'Camelot Ball'

Four Birmingham families will entertain at cocktails before St. Dunstan's "Camelot Ball", Saturday evening. They include the Robert S. Raischs, Charles Himelchofs, Louis Hagobians, Stephen Booths, Benjamin Brewsters and the Richard Teels. The committee members have turned the make-up room into a dungeon with unusual decorations.

Wells Club to Fete Alumnae President Tonight at Dinner
