

Annual Men's Night Planned by Gardeners

Ozage Garden Club members will be escorting their husbands to the club's annual "Men's Night" to be held at St. Stephens Episcopal Church on North Adams Road Monday evening.

The club has decided on a repeat performance of their popular men's dinner of a year ago—a 65-pound roast of beef from Monahan's, complete with chef, and an array of foods from the members' own kitchens for the smorgasbord dinner.

Guests Mr. and Mrs. Donald Olson of Dogwood Court will complete the evening with their slides on "Scandinavian Holiday." Planning the event is hospitality chairman Mrs. Earl Rohlfacher and committee members Mrs. Hugh Carney, Mrs. Donald Richardson, Mrs. Fred Stefanski, Mrs. Elmer Kestly and the club's president, Mrs. E. A. Linder.

Mrs. Edward Connel and daughter, Mrs. Russell Holcomb, of Butternut Hill Drive entertained at a baby shower and dessert, honoring Mrs. Albert Quarton of Royal Oak on Thursday evening. Gathering for the event were Mrs. Michael Bell of Butternut Hill Drive, mother of Mrs. Quarton; Pine Hill neighbors and Franklin guests.

A group of Pine Hill area neighbors have been meeting monthly for the past five years to make cancer pads. Last Tuesday morning the group brought their lunches to the William Rice home

MRS. C. A. DENNISON JR.

Wendy Torcom Becomes Bride of Calvin Dennison

Wendy Kathleen Torcom became the bride of Calvin Andrew Dennison Jr. Dec. 30 at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The Rev. John J. Russell performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manas Torcom Jr. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dennison of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore a traditional wedding gown of ivory ducale satin with a fitted basque bodice, sabbina neckline which dipped slightly in back and elbow length sleeves.

The bridal attire was completed by a waist length ivory silk illusion veil, fastened with a traditional wreath of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried crescent shaped bouquet of gladioli and lilies-of-the-valley.

Jean Torcom, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor; Mary Anna Eldred, Terry Lueck, Barbara Joern and Mrs. Robert Schultz were bridesmaids.

THEY WERE gowned in spruce green imported silk broadcloth. They wore matching velvet crowns with suspended circle veils and carried white poinsettias.

George Dennison stood as best man and ushers were Gordon Taylor, Thomas Obergberg and Joseph Gates. The couple will live in Golden, Colo.

Midvale Scouts Visit Museum

Greenfield Village and Henry Ford museum in Dearborn, were visited by Midvale Troop 341. These sixth graders have previously camped overnight at Camp Narrin, and this forthcoming overnight trip was Troop 341's first "overnight" in which they will be dining at Clinton Inn, instead of their previous out-door "cook-out" experiences at local parks, as well as at Camp Narrin. Supervised swimming in the pool will be available.

THESE Girl Scouts worked on their badges in conjunction with their examination of the American Ceramics pottery shop, and the glass blowing at Henry Ford Museum.

Three and one-half years of scouting for Troop 341 was culminated in this "overnight." Leader is Mrs. Arnold E. Hook and assistant leader, Mrs. John Bryant.

The Merritt Elliotts of Rouge Circle Drive have had their daughter, Elizabeth Yates, MI 6-1622, visiting them since Dec. 23. They also have been houseguests of the Ralph Johnsons of Birmingham, parents of Johnson, during their stay.

Johnson was graduated from Northrup Technical Institute in Los Angeles on Dec. 15 and is presently enroute to Lockheed Air Force Base at San Antonio, Tex., where he will attend officer training school for three months. Mr. Johnson will accompany him to Texas.

The Ray Emburys of Rouge Circle Drive enjoyed a visit from the son of Bill for a week recently. Bill, an airman apprentice with the U.S. Navy Air Force, has departed for New York, where he will board the U.S.S. Constellation for a transatlantic cruise to the Pacific and Japan.

Daughter, Marilyn, who is presently in Chicago, was also home for a week visit.

The Birmingham Business and Professional Women met at Greenfield Restaurant for a dinner meeting on Tuesday evening. Their guest speaker, Lieut. R. Schaulle of the Birmingham Police Dept., gave a talk on "Winter Driving Safety."

The Sacred Heart School Book Fair will begin on Feb. 3 and continue through Feb. 7 at the school. A marionette show and story hour will open the show on Saturday with performances slated for 2-3-4 p.m. on Sunday. Guest speaker Sr. M. Davidica, IHM, will give a talk at 3 p.m. entitled "Mother and Daughter Reading—Is it Love Mother or Father?"

A film on books will be the program planned at the close of the book fair on Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. Chairman of the event is Mr. Donald McAlister of Brethry Drive. Proceeds from the fair will benefit the school library.

Mrs. Arzyl Campbell of E. Maple Road entertained a group of friends at a dessert bridge on Wednesday afternoon. Attending were Mrs. Brady Brenton, Mrs. George Sold, Mrs. William Nicubus, Mrs. Eugene Moorhead of Hill Hill, Mrs. Fred Lince Dupont of Hickory Heights, Mrs. Ernest Woodland and Mrs. William Scarborough of Beverly Hills.

Mrs. David Burlingame of Walnut Hill Drive hosted an evening of bridge inviting Walnut Hill neighbors last week. In the group were Mrs. Charles Van Norwick, Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. John Searls, Mrs. George Sold, Mrs. William Nicubus, Mrs. Robert Dixon and Mrs. Brady Brenton.

A daughter, Lisa, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walton of Ashover Drive on Dec. 27. The Walton has three other daughters, Debbie, Nancy and Susan.

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

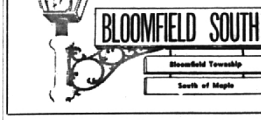

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffith Gassaway Jr., of Woodale Court, Birmingham, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to William C. Berndt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Berndt of E. Maple, Birmingham.

Miss Gassaway teaches instrumental music in the Birmingham public schools and is the Orchestra Director at Groves High School. Mr. Berndt teaches instrumental music in the Highland Park school system and is band director at Fair St. High.

An August wedding is planned.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE—An unusual and memorable experience happened recently to the George H. Webb family of South Cranbrook Cross Drive.

The seven on a Caribbean cruise with their son, Tom, and stopped off for a side trip in Kingston, Jamaica. The mountains were inviting so the Webbs engaged an English taxi and driver to make the jaunt. Unfortunately they were involved in a slight accident after they reached the port. Three men came along and offered help. The Webbs were invited to the home of the three men and given refreshments, including real Jamaican Plum Pudding.

A dash for the boat was slowed down because they were all laden with gifts they had received from every member of the DePasa family.

WESTCHESTER—Little George Kann, III, is very happy about the new arrival at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. George Kann on Roanoke Drive. Baby Steven John arrived on Jan. 7, weighing 10 lbs., 14 1/2 ozs. Smaller George is now sure that he and his new brother can hold their own with sisters Gail and Susan.

The Westchester Women's Club is sponsoring a teen-age bowling party on Feb. 3 at the Birmingham Bowl at 6:30 p.m. All teenagers who are interested may contact Mrs. Andrew Seed, 2740 Farmingdale Drive.

Don King, president of the Westchester Village Association, is asking all residents to circle Feb. 28 on their calendar. There will be a very important meeting on that date to discuss a vital issue. The meeting will be held at the Bloomfield Township Hall on Telegraph.

King has also announced that Westchester is now divided into 21 areas. Each one has a block captain assigned to develop better communication between the greater Westchester Civic Association and the residents.

All Westchester women are invited to the January 25 luncheon given by the Westchester Women's Club. The time is noon at the Hollow Golf Club. Mrs. John J. Shada, currently chairman of the speakers bureau of the Detroit Round Table of Christians and Jews, will talk about the "Wonderful World of Women."

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Bert Swanson and today is the deadline.

Former Clevelanders Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guckstad of Farmingdale Drive invited five couples from their calendar for the weekend to help celebrate his birthday.
