Music Makers

Mrs. Walter F. Skinner, Mrs. H. S. McFarland, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond and Mrs. Lloyd Kemp are directing tomorrow night's concert in the Oak Park high school. Birmingham Musicale will feature pianist Arthur LaBrew and baritone David Lemelin at the benefit and a big crowd is expected.

Southern Style

Members of Birmingham Golf and Country club will gather tomorrow night for a "Resort Fashionista." Papa can enjoy his seafood dinner AND the pretty models while Mama quietly plots her winter vacation wardrobe.

Men Only

A swatch dinner took place in Birmingham last week and it all grew out of a conversation on just how to make potato pancakes. Mr. L. P. Andrews and Mr. C. A. Leist decided to prove their culinary skills and planned a complete dinner—complete to the table setting and centerpieces. No women were allowed near the kitchen or dining room. Guests, who agreed the potato pancakes and fried chicken were superb, included Mrs. C. A. Leist, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ivey, Mrs. A. D. Fortier and Mr. W. A. McFattelle who was visiting from his ranch in Texas.

The E. S. Wellocks of Bloomfield Hills have scheduled two dinner parties. One the 27th and the other Feb. 4.

Sunny Side Up

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdi Broeck will leave soon for their annual trip to Naples, Fla.

Members of the "Forgotten Fifty" club (an investment club where the members puts in fifty dollars a month and then forgets about it) will cash in on a special dividend. They've planned a long weekend in Florida with their wives. Mr. and Mrs. William Pack-er, Jr. will fly with the William Coopers, the Donald O'Toole and the Norman Frye down together in their plane. Others flying down together include the Donald Dietrichs, the Norman Measleys, the Avery Camerons, the

Joyce Pettis, the Milton Manley, Mrs. and the Jack Rineharts.

Bride Bulletin

Mr. and Mrs. William Vasu (she was the former Babe Baldwin of Orchard Lake) have returned from their Jamaica honeymoon and are living at the Baldwin home until their new home is completed.

Look, Ma

We're dancing. Which is always the story when members of the Winter Club get together for their dances. Last week they met at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club and as usual, danced up a storm.

Tan-A-Rama

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Goething are vacationing at the Pink Sands in the Bahamas, the Robert Fricks have returned from Jamaica and the Lloyd Grinnels are sunning themselves on Deerfield Beach in Florida.

Broadway-Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels selected the bright lights for their long weekend. Their New York holiday ends Wednesday—which is the best possible day to either start or end the weekend. (See NOTES, 6-D)
