

MRS. WINTERMUTE

Bridal Pair Will Live In Washington

Wearing a waltz-length gown of silk, pearl de sole and Alencon lace, Carol Ann McKnight walked up the aisle of the First Presbyterian Church June 30 to become the bride of Lt. H. Ogden Wintermute II.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. McKnight of 865 Puritan, Birmingham, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wintermute, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

A pill box embroidered in seed pearls secured the bride's butterfly veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

MRS. JOHN F. BERTON JR. was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Diana Gibbs and Marcia McMahon. They all wore silk sheathings of soft gold and carried carnations tipped in gold and ivy.

Edgar Grimm was best man, and ushers were Lt. Edwin Emerson, John F. Burton and Michael Richards.

Following a motor trip through Virginia, the couple will be at home at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D. C.

Beavers, Bowlers Plan Annual Old Club Party

Detroit Athletic Club's swimming Beavers will stage their annual Old Club stag outing July 10. This will be the twenty-fifth year the Beavers have had this outdoor frolic at the club at 85, Clair Plaza.

James Hovan of Birmingham will be among the aides on the games. He will captain the DAC Bowlers' team in the traditional basball game against the Beavers team captained by C. G. Sharemet of Grosse Pointe. Dr. Sigurd Becker of the Points is acting chairman.

More than 200 Beavers and Bowlers from the Birmingham, Bloomfield, Grosse Pointe and Detroit areas are expected to attend. The departure of the excursionists aboard a fleet of cruisers for the trip across Lake St. Clair is slated for 10 a.m. from the docks of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

At the Old Club, besides 12 o'clock luncheon and 6:30 p.m. dinner, the day will include games of shuffleboard, horseshoes, tennis, golf (six 3 par holes), also trap shooting and water skiing.
