

MRS. STEWART

Baton Rouge To Be Home Of Newlyweds

At a noon ceremony June 23 in Saint Anthony's Shrine at Dun Scotus, JoAnn Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lelio P. Jordan of Lathrup Village became the bride of Todd Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stewart of Indianapolis, Ind.

The bride's gown was silk organza fashioned with a scoop neckline and pearl encrusted diamond lace trim. The gown had lace motifs on a full skirt sweeping into a chapel train. Her headpiece was a Swedish pearl crown with French illusion veiling. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white sweetheart roses with ivy.

The bride's sister, Lois Lee, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids included Cindy Janice, Marzy Jurno, Linda Dunn and Barbara Benschack. They all wore flower green silk organza dresses with bell-shaped skirts caught at the waistline with a matching bow. The bridesmaids wore flower green Dior bow headbands with circular veils. They carried bouquets of white and

Families Plan Busy Month With Camps and Vacations

By ELIZABETH YATES

July promises to be a busy month for North Adams families as children embark for summer camps and vacations go into full swing.

Three of the Mark Jaroszewicz children, Stephen, Ann and Jack of Butternut Hill drive, spent last week shopping for hiking shoes and other equipment for their two months stay in Switzerland.

They boarded a plane for New York Sunday and one day later they were headed for Geneva. The last part of their Swiss vacation will be spent traveling. In August, their father will arrive to take the children on a tour of surrounding villages and cities to meet friends before returning to the U.S.

THE F. EARLE Steeles of Hyland drive have been enjoying the laughter of little ones, babies and babies, this past month while their daughters and children come to visit.

Steeles took a week's vacation the first of June. Flying in together from California were daughters, Mrs. Gilbert Freeman and babies, Debra and Charles, of Port Huonens and Mrs. Robert Mayer of Avondale. Another daughter, Mrs. H. Dean Billau yellow daisies and ivy. The groom's brother, William Stewart of Lexington, Ky., was best man. Seating the guests were Joseph Hood, Jerry Udell, Marco Bliester and John Davis, all from Indianapolis.

The bride's mother wore a beige embroidered silk organza sheath and matching accessories. The couple will make their home in Baton Rouge, La.

and sons, Steven, Kevin and Douglas, of Ravle Creek, spent the first week with them and since have been returning on weekends.

THE WALLY MORGAN'S entertained relatives at their Pine Hill drive home on the weekend. They were the John Butler's of Covington, Ky.

RELATIVES MOTORING from California to spend part of the summer with the Michael Bell's of Butternut Hill drive will be Mrs. Ray White and her son, Jacques, of Pompano, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen and son, Mike, of Los Angeles. They are expected the latter part of July. In August, White will join his family here.

THE HARRY ANDREWS of Pine Hill Drive are looking forward to the end of July when they will have Colonel and Mrs. C. W. Murphy of Fort Sill, Okla. as guests. The Colonel will be en route to the War College in Pennsylvania.

A GROUP OF Pine Hill neighbors held their annual pot luck cookout on the Fourth of July in the gardens of the Robert Brandon's and the Wally Morgan's. Joining in the lobster bake were the Jack Yoder's and the Robert Livesay's.

PINE HILL residents are still chuckling over the latest area play "The Birmingham Newcomers". Attending the performance last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pardee and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livesay.

THE HARRY M. Bixby's of Hopkins, Minn. have moved into their new home on Mansfield drive. Their children are, Mrs. John Monaghan of Fort Dodge, lowa, and Michael Bixby, a student at the University of Minnesota. Bixby is district manager of Sperry Hutchinson Co. Their interests include boating, hunting and fishing.

THE JAMES DUGANS and children, Patti and Linda, are newcomers to Butternut Hill drive. They spent last year in Racine, Wis., but they are formerly from Nashville, Tenn. Dugan is in sales promotion with Ford Tractor. The family are golf and swim enthusiasts. Dugan is also an amateur painter, working with oils, water colors and charcoals.

DR. AND MRS. Bruce Squiers and daughter, Beth, are newcomers to Masfield drive. They moved from Rosedale Park. The doctor has his dental offices in the General Motors Bldg.

Mrs. Squiers entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday afternoon for her former neighbors. Much to her surprise, each of her guests arrived bearing a plant for her garden.

THE JACK YODERS of Pine Hill drive spent two weeks the end of June visiting in Chicago. They visited their friends, the Bennett Cookes, the William McKnight, the John Clewards and Yoder's mother, Mrs. Dwight B. Yoder.
