Looking forward to an interesting and varied summer are Tina and Bob Bailey of Arlington Drive, Tina will be busy as a counselor-in-training at the Reception Day Camp in Bloomfield Hills. Christina, who will be a sophomore next year, has attended the camp for the past three years and before that, Camp-Cam-Lodre on Indian River. She is an excellent swimmer and has participated in synchronized swimming at The Women's City Club. She will be working with the junior group this summer. Bob Bailey has enrolled in the elementary youth fitness program at The Wiley E. Groves High School.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE exchange student Hans-Jurg A. Kupper from Groves, is on a three-week good will tour of Ohio and Kentucky.

Jean Ann Lugers and Hans' close friends held an impromptu farewell party for the AFS student recently.

THE BUFFET table was planned around a green and white nautical theme, with "Bon Voyage" hung overhead by John Thomas Wood. Every one signed Hans' yearbook and presented him with "shuck-a-grifts", plus a good sized bill for him to spend along the way.

Hans came over last August from near Berne, the German-speaking part of Switzerland. He is very talented in art and music and graduated cum laude.

Vows Spoken At Service In Coldwater

At a ceremony solemnized June in Coldwater, Mich., Barbara Stoway, Yingling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Granville Yingling of Coldwater, formerly of Birmingham and Franklin Village, spoke her marriage vows to Ralph Lauren Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hazen Livingston of Richmond, Ind.

The bride, a graduate of Birmingham High School and Purdue University, chose for her wedding a gown fashioned of silk organza over taffeta, with chantilly lace marking the sabrina neckline and used again in the trim on the full-length skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and baby nuns.

LUCY HAUBERSON of Muncie, Ind., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Becky Livingston of Richmond and Judy Beach of South Bend. They were all dressed in aqua colored silk organza and carried pink and white carnations.

Hal Worthington of South Bend was best man, and seating the guests were Troy Livingston of Richmond and Bob Yingling of Coldwater.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Michigan, the bridal pair will be at home in Dayton, Ohio.

Spacious Garden Is Setting For Glamorous Island Party

By VELMA McCANE
MA 6-6530

The spacious garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baldwin on Putnam Road, Walnut Lake, was turned into a tropical paradise Saturday night for a Hawaiian luau. Some 24 guests honored Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Wahl, Wade Knisley and Mark Slough at the evening gala.

Cocktails were served from a small, summer house, resembling the traditional "little grass shack." Later a typical island dinner was served. Lets were given to each guest and dancing and singing concluded the evening.

KIRKWOOD
Pride prevailed in the Richard Westerman household on Sutters Lane last week when Westerman received his master of science degree in chemical engineering at Wayne State University.

The celebration was made perfect by the arrival of his mother, Mrs. C. W. Westerman, from Milwaukee, Wis. As her contribution to the festivities, Mrs. John Kat-
