Middle Eastern Journey
Enjoyed by Area Family

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Angewine and their daughter, Judi, of Carriage Lane are back home following a month's tour of the Middle East.

The family began their travels in Geneva and Zurich by visiting relatives, then met the tour again in Cairo, Egypt. The tour began with the Valley of the Kings at Luxor, followed by a journey through Damascus, Lebanon, Israel, Jordan and Athens.

While they were in the Israeli section of Jerusalem they visited the modern hospital.

CHALMERS LAKE
O. H. (Walt) Baker took charge of planning the beautiful fireworks display that was enjoyed not only by the small fry but by parents and grandparents alike on the 4th.

This display is becoming an annual affair. Residents of the area meet at the beach.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE
The Bloomfield Village branch WNPFA gave a pool party for their husbands last Saturday evening at the Hupp Cross Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrow.

AFTER LEAVING Egypt, the Angewines took a second day tour of the Greek Islands, followed by visits to Istanbul, Turkey, and Vienna. While in Vienna, Mrs. Angewine visited the convent where she went to school as a child. This visit alone with seeing Bhahleh, a temple of ancient days, were highlights enjoyed before returning to London and the flight home.

Mrs. Fred Cowin was committee chairman for the group that planned the dip which was followed by cocktails and an informal buffet dinner.

Those who attended were the Lee Bikes, Philip Coplands, Michael Frisches, Robert Kilpatrick, Richard LaDues, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lindington Jr., the William C. Resticks and the Franklin Roberts.

Also present were the Atwell Smiths, Derwin Walkers, Robert Williams, H. W. Buttes, Donald Rights, William Teutbergs and Charles Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Strobel are at home in Waterford following their recent honeymoon in northern Michigan. The bride is the former Evelyn May Pillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Pillon of Birmingham, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Strobel of Auburn Heights.

The couple repeated their vows June 25 at a ceremony in St. James Episcopal Church, the bride wearing a gown of silk organza and Alencon lace. Her chapel length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a white prayer book to which was fastened a cluster of white orchids.

Mrs. Thomas Bader, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a yellow taffeta sheath with bouffant overskirt and carrying yellow carnations. Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Barbara Ann Hunt and Mary Jane Hunt, cousins of the bride. Benjamin Forbush was best man, and ushers were Richard Young and Robert Uhan.
