

Two Groups Will Combine To Give Show

A number of Birmingham-Bloomfield women will attend a get-acquainted luncheon today at Miracle Lounge in the Miracle Mile Shopping Center, Pontiac, to launch a flower show, "Miracle of Flowers", to be presented Sept. 14 and 15.

The shopping center will provide a setting for the show, co-sponsored by the Lorraine Manor Branch of WNFPA, Pontiac, and Michigan Division Flower Show School. Entries are open to all members of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. The luncheon will bring together student judges who are attending Flower Show School and serving as chairmen with members of the Lorraine Branch. Mrs. Warren C. Clevon, of Pontiac, is general chairman.

Among local women attending today's luncheon will be Mrs. P. N. Askouness, Mrs. Fred Trickey, Mrs. Frederick Stefanski and Mrs. Earle C. Heft.

In shampooing long hair (and many a moppet will appreciate this advice, Mom) comb it through while it is full of suds to prevent tangles. Rinse carefully and pat dry.

Evening in Paris

Pine Lake Country Club members and their guests will spend an evening in Paris at a Parisian Nights dinner dance Saturday, July 21. Cocktails begin at 7 and music will continue until 1:30. French cuisine, decorations and atmosphere will prevail. Scott and Lois Dickson of Birmingham are co-chairmen of the affair.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Jon B. Rogers (Barbara Rosborough of Birmingham) of Old Greenwich, Conn., announce the birth of a son, John Wesley, on June 19.

News Revealed at Dinner

At a family dinner party given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Moody II of Denver, Colo., formerly of Birmingham, announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter Carol Anne to Pieter Eduard Geldhof, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Eduard Geldhof of Benton Harbor, Mich. Miss Moody was graduated in June from Michigan State University, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. Her fiance is attending Michigan State, where his fraternity is Sigma Nu. A September wedding is being planned.

Awards Won At Annual Doe Day

A cannon blast was the signal that "The Race Is On!"

Forty well-trained fillies participated in the 6503-ft. event at Oakland Hills Country Club's annual Doe Derby Race on Friday.

In the winner's circle from Vinton's Green and White Stables, were the team entry winners. They were: Bonnie (Miss Repeat) Vinton, Fran (Oise to Catch) Rich, Peg (Detroit's Loss) Kellerman, Betty (Pipperry) Bieneman.

Mrs. Vinton's thoroughbred team, with a best ball of 63, nosed out the "place" team by 2 strokes.

"Place", from the Wilcox's Purple and Gold Stables were: Esther Wilcox, Toni Hill, Jean Schiaberger and Evelyn Carlson.

"Show" position was tied with a score of 66 by Daisy Staphin-skas' team and Ruth Jackson's team, so there will have to be a playoff.

Immediately following the hard-run race, the forty "horses" and grandstand spectators proceeded to the track's "Turf Club" for cocktails, luncheon and the presentation of awards.

Doe Derby Day's chairman, Mrs. Fred E. Sheldon Jr., was assisted by Mrs. Orta B. Crego, Mrs. John A. Tabin and Mrs. Harvey W. Ewald.

MRS. CHURCHVARA

Bridal Pair Honeymoon In Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Peter Churchvara are in Miami Beach, Fla., following the marriage July 7 in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Birmingham.

Formerly Judith Ann Lukacs, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Lukacs of Dunblaine Road, Beverly Hills, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Churchvara of Detroit.

The bride wore a full-length gown of silk peau de soie with long sleeves, a chapel train and scoop neckline accented by Alencon lace and seed pearls.

THE BRIDE'S SISTERS, Joan and Mary Denise, were maid of honor and junior bride-maid, respectively. Other attendants included Mrs. Muriel Shamus of Chicago; Sue Ann Holbrest of Southfield and Sandra Boh of Detroit. They all wore green organza accented by white lace.

Robert Slavin of Detroit was best man, and the bridegroom's two brothers, Paul and Mark, along with Thomas Churchvara, also of Detroit, were ushers.

Following their honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Detroit.
