Birmingham Alums Attend Convention

Representing the Birmingham Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at the 27th national convention were Mrs. Owen Davis, president; Mrs. John Dieffenbaker, treasurer, and Mrs. Jack LaBelle, past president. Also in attendance from Birmingham was Sallyann Richardson.

The convention was held at the Bedford Springs Hotel, Bedford, Pa., and was presided over by Mary Bart Brooks Nash of Little Rock, Ark., national president.

Alpha Xi Delta has 88 college chapters, 169 alumnae chapters, with more than 35,000 initiated members. It was one of the seven founders of the National Panhellenic Conference. The sorority supports a national philanthropic program devoted to the prevention of juvenile delinquency. This year marks the fourth annual award of the Graduate Fellowship in Social Service in the amount of $1,500, which is offered through its members or non-members, men or women, who are interested in working with children.

EACH SUMMER THREE college students from Alpha Xi Delta Chapters are sent by the sorority to Howell Neighborhood House in Chicago, Ill., to serve on the summer staff and assist with the regular program—conducting classes in arts and crafts, field trips, neighborhood block recreation programs, etc.

Alpha Xi Delta has also provided $3,000 each year toward the salary of a full time social worker who specializes in teenage problems and programs at Howell House.

The Birmingham Alumnae Chapter has selected a local philanthropy closely allied to the field

House Guests

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Sharp Burdell were house guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth of Thornton, Bloomfield Hills. Dr. Burdell recently left his post with the Middle East Technical University in Ankara, Turkey, prior to which he had been president of The Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art in New York.

Immediately after their arrival here, daughter Karen ransacked her bags and left on a 10 week's tour of Europe as part of the American Youth Abroad program. She will travel in the Scandinavian countries, the British Isles,

Local Family On the Move

Mr. and Mrs. George Altmanberger of Whately Road, Franklin, have recently returned from Pittsburg, Kan., where they attended the fiftieth wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fadler.

Her brother Richard, who will enter the University of Michigan in September, is in New Hampshire for the summer working in a lodge at Sugar Hill.

Portugal, Spain, Switzerland and the Mediterranean countries. She will be a senior at Michigan State this fall.

Her name Hattie Carnegie, long associated with American elegance will return to the custom fashion picture this month. A nephew has reorganized and reopened the workshop, that fell apart after the death of the fashion great, and the "Carnegie Look" will be ready for the fall market.

She will travel in the Scandinavian countries, the British Isles,

European Trip Is Taken by Bridal Pair

Cynthia Anne Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gordon Kelly of Birmingham spoke her marriage vows July 7 in St. Dunstan's Chapel, Christ Church Cranbrook, to Dr. Edward Lawrence Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edward Weber of Wyomissing, Pa.

Ivory peau de soie fashioned with a short bell skirt was chosen by the bride for her wedding, the costume accented by an heirloom point d'application veil which had been worn by her mother and great aunt. Her flowers were lilies of the valley, white roses, phalaropsis and ivy.

Sally Lyndon Kelly was her sister's maid of honor, and Kathryn Kirkpatrick was the only other attendant. Both girls wore
