Mrs. Dillon Is Honored

Mrs. O'Neil Dillon, Ypsomita, Birmingham, was honored at the recent Delta Gamma convention held on Mackinac Island by having a fellowship awarded in her name.

Each year Delta Gamma awards a $500 honorary fellowship to a graduate senior or fourth of her choice. This year the Birmingham Alumnae chapter of Delta Gamma has made possible an additional $500 honorary fellowship in paying tribute to Mrs. Dillon, a member of their group.

Mrs. Dillon was general chairman of the convention at the Grand Hotel. She is a former national secretary of the sorority and previous chairman of the national Grants and Loans Committee which is a part of the Delta Gamma Foundation.

The award was granted to Elizabeth Kirkpatrick of Denver, Colo., for excellence in scholarship and her outstanding contribution in campus activities and service.
