Donation to a Hospital

The bed will be used for paraplegics, heart cases, severe burns and other traumatic injuries. It operates automatically on a circular frame so that the position of the patient may be changed by moving the bed.

To Be Bride

Carolyn Chesshire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Lane of Hat Springs, Ark., is engaged to Paul Lee Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones of Spiro, Okla., formerly of Franklin. The bride-elect made her debut in 1940 at the Hat Springs Country Club and is currently a junior at the University of Arkansas. Her fiancé was graduated from Birmingham High School in 1958 and is a senior at the University of Arkansas. A late summer wedding is planned.

Sometime in June there will be a meeting of the new International Congress of Practical Jokers in La Roche Caulliac, France. The delegates will plant a museum of their art and an encyclopedia of history's most famous examples. Novelist Françoise Sagan will be chairman.

NOTICE!

In my shop and manufactory at 332 Hamilton Street in Birmingham, I display a unique collection of Early American antiques and accessories, all in the finest tradition of that bygone age. I also hand craft original pieces of furniture to your order, furniture that painstakingly duplicates the style and skill of the old cabinetmakers. Visit me soon; I am at your service.

Round of Parties Fetes Bride-Elect

By HELEN PETERS
 MI 4-8420

Kirk-in-the-Hills will be the scene July 24 of the wedding of Sylvia Trathall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester E. Trathall of Orchard Lake, and Richard M. Leslie of Okemos. A reception will follow at the Villant Women's Club.

Several parties are planned in her honor, the first being a luncheon today at Country Club of Detroit, given by Mrs. Benjamin Stockwell of Grosse Pointe. On Monday, Mrs. John Shenfield, her daughter, Ann, and Barbara Marco of Grosse Pointe, are having a luncheon and kitchen shower at the Shenfield home on Bennington Drive.

The bride-elect's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Knauth of Bates Street, are planning a barbecue party for July 19. The next night, the rehearsal dinner will be given at Orchard Lake Country Club by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Leslie, of Battle Creek, and on the wedding day, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Vayshall are entertaining at a luncheon for the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

A BOON VOYAGE luncheon was given recently by Mrs. Blaine Eymon of Brookside Drive in honor of Mrs. William Spiegel of Chesterfield Road. Among the guests were Mrs. Burt Schmidt Jr., Mrs. Roy Eppert, Mrs. Harsold Kennedy and Mrs. Mark Kraus.

Mrs. Spiegel flew to Weisbaden, Germany, last Thursday to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Naus and their three children who have been abroad since last November. Mrs. Naus is with the Bahr Machine Tool Company of Ann Arbor.

She also will attend the wedding of Countess Katharine Louisa Douglas of Baden, to former Detroit resident Russell W. Layland of New York. His mother is Mrs. Russell Layland of Cranbrook Road.

Before returning home, Mrs. Spiegel will travel the Italian Riviera with Mr. and Mrs. Naus. MRS. CARL PENDRACKI of Cheltenham Road is back after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Jeffrey, at their new home in Dayton, Ohio. The Jeffreys moved to that city recently from Menlo Park, Calif.

Saturday the Albert Jelles and Ronald Carey, both of Avon Road, invited a few neighbors to a patio party which took place at the Careys'. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shreffler, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gravette and the Lydgate Parkers.

Jane Gagner of Tryon, N. C., spent a few days last week as the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pierce of Ticeyton Road. She went on to the Jackson Horse Show before returning to her home Tuesday.

A GROUP THAT has gotten together every Christmas for a progressive dinner is being entertained Saturday at cocktails and dinner by Mr. and Mrs. William Rex at their home in Bloomfield. Among the guests will be the hostess's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse P. Judd, the Larry Nortons, Chester Kalms and Stewart Frankforts.

A series of parties is being given this summer by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyer of Jonathon Lane, Cuckalee and a buffet supper were served around the swimming pool Sunday to a group of friends including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Denler, the John Longleys, and the Phillip Van Zies of Grosse Pointe, who returned just in time for the party from a two-month European trip.

To add life and beauty to rugs and carpets—(1) A daily cleaning with a carpet sweeper. (2) A weekly or bi-weekly vacuuming depending on the traffic, and (3) A yearly professional cleaning.

The average person needs 30 inches of mattress width in which to get adequate rest. Literal mattress measurements for a double bed are 78 inches wide and 80 inches long.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. John O. LaPine (Maryann Nixon of Birmingham) of Clawson announce the birth of a daughter, Linda Anne, June 25.

Savings Bonds bought on the Payroll Savings Plan account for over 40 per cent of the $4 1/2 billion Series E and H bonds sold annually.
