Home from a two week trip to Colorado are the George Solis and their children, Chuck, Mike and Sharon, of Walnut Hill drive. They visited Boulder Dam and Colorado Springs. Highlighting the trip for the children were the two days spent living in cadet quarters at the Air Force Academy.

THE EARL ROHRBACHERS and daughter, Andrea, of Lupton court, spent this year's vacation touring the east for two weeks. While in historical New England, they made stops at Cape Cod, Boston, Concord, Lexington, Mt. Washington Cog Railroad in New Hampshire, and areas in Vermont.

THE ROBERT LIVESAYS of Pine Hill drive met a group of Detroiters at Hidden Valley for a week of golf, swimming and to attend the American Trial Council Association of the Railroad.

PAT HILLSTROM, 11 year old niece of the William McGuires of Chestnut Hill drive, has been visiting here since June 7. Pat is from Raleigh, S. C. and will be returning home this week.

MRS. MIDDLETON

Traverse City Is Scene of Church Rites

The First Congregational Church in Traverse City was the scene of the marriage on July 7 of Tallara Sue Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Davis of Birmingham and Northport, and Alan Lee Middleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Middleton of Northport.

The bride wore silk organza over taffeta for her wedding, the bodice fashioned of chantilly lace accented by a sweetheart neckline, the same lace forming long sleeves which came to a point over the hand. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearlized crown, and she carried white amaranth lilies and ivy.

SANDRA KARNER of Chelsea was maid of honor, wearing for the occasion a yellow nylon sheer fashioned with a scoop neckline, puffed sleeves and a tucked yoke. She wore a yellow butterfly veil and carried a basket of white marguerite daisies. Bridesmaids, whose outfits were the same, included Melanee L. Davis, sister of the bride; Sharon Legsdon of Onekama and Alice Middleton, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was the Rev. John Cernak of Kalamazoo, and ushers were John R. Davis II and Thomas J. Davis, brothers of the bride, and James Sweet of South Lyons, Mich.

Following a wedding trip through northern Michigan, the bridal couple will make their home in Northport.

Engaged

Barbara May Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. R. Hunt of Bloomfield Highlands is engaged to Richard A. Hammerstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammerstein of Birmingham. Date of the wedding will be announced later.
