

BEVERLY HILLS

First Comes a Splash Party, Then Refreshments for Coeds

LOUISE KRAEMER MI 6-9716

More than a dozen coeds of White E. Crocker High School from Huntley Woods will gather this week for a get acquainted Splash Party at the pool, after which they will be entertained at the new home of Mrs. Avery and her three daughters in Huntley Woods.

THE BEVERLY ARTISTIAN Summer playhouse features the Junior Thespians in the Gaiety theatre on Pierce Street. Recently a Pastime Musical was presented by Ann and Jack Currier, Janet Bednarz, Maureen Platte, Janet Chastain, Roseann and Laurie Goldman and Linda Cain.

Each child presented his own skit with his own record of the evening performance refreshments, soft drinks and cookies were served by Mary Currier and Candy Cain.

DON AND RITA GOLDMAN of Pierce Street recently spent a week end in New York City. Goldman had been attending a three week Seminar at Syracuse University, from which he flew to Manhattan. His wife flew from Detroit to meet him.

Friends they had once met on a cruise came from their suburban homes and they all stayed at the Savoy Plaza Hotel. They enjoyed visited museums and ate at places specializing in unusual foods. They particularly enjoyed La Fonda del Sol, an authentic South American restaurant, which specializes in Mexican foods.

who was also spending his first year at the Seminar, for Sales Executive Manager, They graduate at the end of the second year. The course covers a full one year's work in three weeks. This course was participated in by a select international group.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS Zyste of Pierce Street recently took their two sons, Douglas and David, on a 1000 mile exploratory trip into Michigan's upper peninsula. They stopped at Mackinac Island before going as far north as Marquette.

The boys saw deer, bears and huge turtles. They also visited Sea Shells City and watched a Seminole Indian wrestling with an alligator. After three days they came back to Houghton Lake. There they spent several days fishing and swimming from dawn until dusk.

THE ARTHUR ROONEY'S of Elizabeth Street have had a busy summer. It started with a graduation dinner honoring a nephew who attended the University of Detroit, and 14 from Toledo were among the guests.

A day or so later they went to Toledo to join with 300 guests and family in celebrating Mrs. Rooney's sister and brother-in-law's Silver Wedding Anniversary. There was music, dancing and a midnight supper at the club.

The past week Mrs. Rooney's mother, Mrs. Charles J. Witker, has been visiting here. The activities have continued with dinners, luncheons, shopping and the re-seeing of old acquaintances.

The Rooneys plan on vacationing in Holy Name Church (July 7), Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

At a double ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church July 7, Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

At a double ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church July 7, Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

At a double ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church July 7, Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

At a double ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church July 7, Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

At a double ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church July 7, Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

FOR YANKEE TRADERS OUR SUMMER SPECTACULAR. Go on a clothes spree... hurry hurry to buy some of our choicest stock at ridiculous prices. Give your willed summer wardrobe a lift. 1/3 to 1/2 OFF. Cotton Dresses, Blouses, Skirts, Separates, Capesies. A grab bag of accessories... the village store. BIRMINGHAM MI 4-7100 GROSSE PTE. TU 4-7180 ANN ARBOR NO 5-8462 SAGINAW PL 2-5797

Wedding in California

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Nunneley of Birmingham announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Victoria Ann, to David Leon Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Leon Cunningham of Pipestone, Minn. Victoria was graduated from the University of Michigan, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and two journalism honoraries, Theta Sigma Phi and Kappa Tau Alpha. David, a graduate of Stanford University, is completing his last year at Boalt Hall School of Law at the University of California in Berkeley. He is a member of Theta Xi and Phi Delta Phi. After their Aug. 10 wedding, the couple will live in Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. Nunneley will travel to California for the ceremony.

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH

Money Gained from Tournament Used for Educational Purposes

By VELMA McCANE MA 6-6530

The bridge tournament held by the Westchester branch of WNFPA has ended and co-chairman Mrs. Robert Dewar and Mrs. Harold Toyman have announced the winners.

First place honors went to Mrs. Edward Balle and Mrs. Donald Davis. Second place to Mrs. Gordon Loveland and Mrs. Donald King and third place to Mrs. William George and Mrs. Norman Duke. Fourth place went to Mrs. Robert Dewar and Mrs. Andrew Seed and fifth place Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Joseph M. Nerney.

MONEY RECEIVED from the tournament has been earmarked for two projects. The bulk will be given to the Lady Aberdeen Fund, an international organization where an adult woman from a foreign country is selected to attend a university.

There she will study horticulture and carry this information back to her own area, teaching the women there to grow many of their foods.

The balance of the money was used to send a woman through the Michigan division of WNFPA to East Lansing, where she attended the Home Makers Conference.

BERKSHIRES On June 26 Mrs. Paul B. Appleton had a bridge and luncheon honoring Mrs. William Henry of Noroton Conn., who is visiting her parents, the Roy Abernethys of Oakland Dr. Guests included Roy Abernethy, James M. Scott, Arthur Corners, Robert C. Oakes, M. J. Rowland, Henry C. Botsford, Kenneth I. Vogt and Mrs. Appleton's daughter, Sue.

Burdick Serving Aboard the Cree

Ralph E. Burdick II, personnel third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Burdick, 27061 Lathrup Blvd., city of Lathrup Village, is serving aboard the fleet tug USS Cree, which has joined the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The Cree engages in Salvage and rescue operations while with the Seventh Fleet. The ship can tow ships for long distances.

He's on Field Trip

Midshipman second class Orin F. Pearson III, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Ford Pearson of 351 Mohagan Drive, Birmingham, is serving on a Navy midshipman from Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., attending a three-week aviation field trip at the Naval Air Station in Corpus Christi, Tex.

The trips are designed to give the midshipmen a general picture of the Navy Flight Training program.

Kling, Hupp Finish Training

Timothy G. Kling, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kling of 2028 Northlawn, Birmingham, and Thomas H. Hupp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hupp, 75 Devon, Birmingham, were graduated recently from two-weeks training as naval reservists at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Nearly 2,500 reservists from throughout the country received training in ordnance and gunnery, damage control, water survival and other important subjects.

In Training Course

Airman Basic Douglas R. Donner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Donner of 2440 Martha Washington, Southfield, is being retrained to the United States Air Force technical training course for radio and radar maintenance specialists at Keeley AFB, Miss.

Airman Donner, who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes. He is a 1961 graduate of Southfield High School.

Attend Convention

Dorothy McLachlan, president of the Birmingham chapter of Zonta, national club for women executives, will return Friday from New Orleans where she has represented this area at the national convention. Miss McLachlan is treasurer of Walsh, James and Wasey, Birmingham realtor.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE

The welcome-back sign is up in the neighborhood for Mrs. Frank Archer and her daughter Bebe of Cranbrook Maple. Bebe spent the winter at Golden Beach, Fla. The Gulfstream race track was so close that they frequented the races. A short jaunt to Nassau on the German ship Hancatitz, was another treat.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Melanson hosted them for six weeks.

AMBITIOUS SHARON

ambitious SHARON Ostrow is operating a summer play school for children ages two thru seven at her home at 238 S. Williamsburg. The small fry will be read stories, play games and make simple projects. Contact Sharon for more information.

A BIG "HELLO"

goes to the newest neighbors at 2801 Maple. Mr. and Mrs. Jules Saut moved here from Richmond, Va. Saut, who is with Reynolds Metals Co. enjoys golf. Their son Jeff is also interested in sports, having played Little League Baseball, and he is looking forward to playing football in the fall.

MRS. MIDDLEDITCH

Miss Kramer Repeats Vows

Mrs. Katherine Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Kramer of N. Adams Road, Birmingham, and David Kevin Middleitch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin O. Middleitch of Elm Street, Birmingham, were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church on June 23.

The bride, whose ballerina-length gown was fashioned of Alencon lace and crystals over satin, carried a sheaf of white orchids. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls.

MRS. MELISSE SOLMEN

of Ferndale was matron of honor and Marie Rodman and Cathi Middleitch, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They all wore pink fall dresses with whimsy fair bows and carried old-fashioned nosegays of daisies.

Douglas Walton was best man, and ushers included Dan Akery, David Church and Rodney Grambs. J. J. Ann Arbor, Ken Climie, Grant Wicks, Kenney Buckenmehl, Billy Holmes and Bruce Helmke.

MRS. WILSON

Wilson-Clark Vows Repeated At Holy Name

At a double ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Name Church July 7, Mary Jane Clark, daughter of Mrs. R. L. Sauer of Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Sauer, became the bride of Richard Cassam Wilson, son of Mrs. Cassam A. Wilson of Hanna Street, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Clark, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with tiny Swiss flowers appliqued on the bodice, the same applique used in her headpiece and ballroom veil designed by Monzelle. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

GURVE of San Lorenzo, Calif., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Linda Wilson, sister of the bridegroom; Darcy Kortz of Rockford, Mich.; Mrs. Allan Henech of St. Clair Shores. They were all dressed alike in white silk linen sheaths with tulip petal overskirts and large white hairbrist hats trimmed in rose buds. They carried bouquets of the same pink buds.

Robert P. Larson of Birmingham was best man, and seating the guests were Edward Gierok of Ann Arbor; Stewart Nannely of Birmingham and Ed Conway of Wyandotte, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Following a two weeks' wedding trip in Florida, the couple will be at home in Royal Oak.

L. J. Steggs Climax Visit

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Steggs, of 2339 Dorchester Road, Birmingham, have just returned from a month's visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Commander and Mrs. Robert J. Steggs of London Bridge, Va.

While in the south, they attended high school graduation exercises of James Steggs, one of their seven grandchildren. The others include Shelly, Robin, Shawn, Hillary, Shannon and Troy.

Mrs. Robert Steggs is a sister of Mrs. Glenn James of Wing Lake, Birmingham. Her husband, who has been in the Navy since 1941, is stationed aboard the U.S. Boxer.

Now We Are 7!

Stuart Forrest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Forrest of 1861 Shipman Blvd., Birmingham, celebrated his seventh birthday June 30 by being host at a luncheon and movie party.

Guests included his sister and brother, Lisa and Scott; Ken Climie, Grant Wicks, Kenney Buckenmehl, Billy Holmes and Bruce Helmke.

Your Attention, Please! Now You Can Run A WANT AD 3 Times $270* for only. Cash Rate Up to 15 words No Copy Changes Non-Commercial. Save a whopping 33 1/3% if your ad is scheduled and runs 3 consecutive issues without change in copy. Place your order in advance for three issues and get the economical 6c word rate for 15 words. When you get results you may cancel your ad as late as Tuesday, 5 P.M., and pay the rate charged for number of times your ad ran. START YOUR AD TODAY MI 4-1100. Want Ad Rates: 1 - Time 1.35, 2 - Times 2.40, 3 - Times 2.70. Min. Cash 1.35, Min. Charge 1.65, 2.70, 3.00. Addl. Words 6c per word, 8c per word, 9c per word.