Opening of the country's largest outdoor horse show last week at Bloomfield Open Hunt was a signal for lots of extra-curricular partying. Among numerous hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Irving A. Duffy who entertained at a cocktail party on the grounds of their home on Manor Road. Guests included senior exhibitors, officials of the horse show, committee members and friends. Among the group (at top) were John Maddox and Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus Jr. Mayor Robert Burg of Metamora (left) took time out for some conversation with his host, Mr. Duffy, before joining the rest of the guests in the huge, gaily striped tent which had been erected for the occasion.

Mrs. Glenn Is Honored At Parties

Mrs. Richard M. Glenn, formerly of Grosse Pointe now of Palm Beach, Fla. has been a recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ortmann of Waddington Road, Birmingham.

During part of her stay, the threesome motored through northern Michigan and into part of Canada, stopping for several days on route back at the Ortmann summer home, Pine Manor, near Laporte. While there, Mrs. Glenn was honored at a dinner party at the Laperon Country Club.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Charles Hummel of Devon Lane entertained for the visitor at a luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, and on Wednesday Mrs. Ortmann was hostess at a farewell bridge luncheon for her guest in her home.

Before returning to Palm Beach for the opening of the season, Mrs. Glenn will be a guest of Mrs. James Vernon in Grosse Pointe.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE Family Ready to Start New Life in Switzerland

By NITA HAIRD
MA 6-3224

The Peter Finns, leaving for Switzerland and a whole new way of life starting with a sailing date of July 19, were fondly feted at a final farewell party Sunday.

The Richard Barnards and the Charles Petersons combined forces to have about 50 guests converge at the Barnard home on Wellington Road for the occasion.

The Finns and their four children will sail on the France along with the Elmhorners and the Eugene Kellys (also of Franklin). The Finns sold their home on Woodside, finished the family business and disposed of many household possessions, and are off to seek their fortunes abroad.

THE PETER GARWOODS' on the other hand, paid friends in Franklin a visit over the weekend, on their first trip back "home" since moving to Saginaw several months ago.

THE STAN FAYS, of Franklin Road proudly enjoying their new status as grandparents, entertained at a Fourth of July picnic.

THEIR OWN 15TH wedding anniversary, and two 25th wedding anniversaries in the family was sufficient reason for the Joseph Janerinos of Nottingham to celebrate with a lawn party, last week.

24 Golfers Swing For Annual Prizes

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

The second annual men's golf outing, sponsored by the Foxcroft Improvement Association, Inc., was held last Saturday at Sylvan Glen Golf Club. Twenty-four men competed for the prizes. Top awards went to Hal Nelson, for Low Gross, and Mike Sarzynski, for Low Net. Chairman of the event was Jim Davis of Sandy Lane.

They concluded the five-hour trip at Kensington Park.

Scoutmaster Bill McCormick and his assistant Russ Stanford, along with Ed Sewell, chairman of the father troop committee, were in charge of the event.

CHALMERS LAKE

Mrs. Orville Oppenheimer of Bywood Road entertained at a luncheon meeting in her home recently. Committee members helping chairman Mrs. Richard South of the Woodcrest Farms Association picnic were Mesdames Walt Baker, Brooke Stanford, John Orlich, Robert Forshaw, H. Harris Goodman, Charles Bellert, L. F. Charford, Donald Kitchen, Paul Spadafore and Joseph Shimnick.

Last Monday the committee met at the home of Mrs. Donald Kitchen on Lakewood Road to complete the final arrangements. The luncheon will be this Sunday on the beach of Chalmers Lake. Some 150 members and their families are expected to attend.

MR. AND MRS. Jack McKay and their children, Judy and Jackie, are back in their Lane Pine Road home following a four day motor trip to Chicago.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Dr. and Mrs. Edson Pool of Gleanery Circle entertained their duplicate bridge group last Saturday evening at a combined bridge, swim and picnic party. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John Quirk, the C. B. Weirs, the Ronald Wyatts and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conaway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hogan Jr. are newcomers to the village but not to the area, having moved from Westchester Village recently. The Hogans have two children, Colleen, 5, and Billy, 2½.

WING LAKE

Mrs. Dan Grohmann of Detroit was the honored guest at a party given for her last Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Ray Poloway of Wing Lake Road. Some thirty guests gathered in the garden for the combined buffet supper and baby shower.

LONE PINE VILLAGE

Claudia Carrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carrick of Hatch Lane, celebrated her 13th birthday recently and invited seven of her friends for a day's cruise on her parents' boat, the "Reem".

Sailing, swimming and a hot dog roast were enjoyed by Claudia and her friends. Guests were Betsy Beck, Claudia, Ashley, Kathy Mauk, Diane Lamb, Martha Unruh, Nancy Tomkinson and Katie Pife.

David Carrick, Claudia's older brother, spent a few days up north with Mrs. Carrick's mother, Mrs. J. L. Jewel of Birmingham.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Boy Scout Troop 1022, sponsored by Conant School PTO, held its final outing for the year recently. The father and son canoe trip, labeled the Huron River Trip, began at Proud Lake. The convoy of 29 canoes, containing 45 scouts and their dads, stopped at Milford for their first portage and for lunch. After another portage along the course,

Festivity Sets Pace at Club

A special moon has been ordered at Forest Lake Country Club to shine down on members when they have their pool party Saturday, July 14. With soft music and a warm summer breeze, members and guests can dip, drink, dawdle or dance under the stars.

Nearly will be an outside barbecue where charcoal steaks will tempt the hungry. For comfort, clothes will be casual—shorts, slacks or shirts. Hosts are the Harry Netherlanders.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Mills of Bloomfield Hills will host a luncheon at Forest Lake July 17, when invited guests will witness the presentation of the "Insigne of Golf's First 10th Hole". Sir John Easton, British Consul-General will present the plaque to club president Donald Green.

On the same day Forest Lake will be the site of the annual District Father and Son Tournament. A golf dinner will follow, when awards will be given.

The new colors for fall have some wonderfully graphic names: Silver Squab, Rock Salt, Wildlife, Berry Bright, Maple Leaf, Appleseed, Buttercrunch, Ginger Snap, Pipegreen, and Devil'd Orange.
