Schwarz of Parkstone Lane, Birmingham. Julie Stubbs of Glenarry Road was a hostess on June 26 at a kitchen shower and dessert in her home on Glenarry Road, and on July 1 Mrs. Charles G. Payne and Mrs. Jasper Reid were co-hostesses at the former's home at a gadget and bar shower.

MITZI HENDRIXSON, of Royal Oak and Barbara Moore of Grosse Pointe entertained July 8 at a bathroom shower in Mitzi's home, and on July 11 Mrs. Harold Cregar of Rosedale Park entertained at a linen shower. Co-hostesses with her were Mrs. Kenneth Hogan and Mrs. Armin DeRavignon.

Puppet Show To Highlight Country Fair

A new entertainment feature will be added to the annual St. Mary's Country Fair July 28 when Mrs. Hope Ruessman and her daughter Amy of Birmingham present their show "The Black Jelly Bean Witch" during the afternoon of the fair.

The show was designed by Mrs. Ruessman, Amy, 10, executed the designs and does the show. Its presentation at the Detroit Institute of Arts earlier this year was so successful that the Curator is planning to repeat it in the fall for Scout groups and parents of the Detroit area.

Mrs. Ruessman is a member of the Puppeteers of America and has shown at the National Puppet Festival at Western College, Oxford, Ohio, this summer. She teaches puppeteering and puppet construction. Amy is the only one of her several children following in her mother's footsteps.

THERE WILL BE two performances, at 1:30 and 2:45. They will be given in the Church itself. The ninth annual St. Mary's Fair opens this year with another new feature—a Country Auction from 10 to 1. The fair itself opens at noon with a variety of interesting things to buy including special imports from Alaska. Games and tempting food add to the attractions. At 5 p.m. dinner will be served. Everyone is invited and there will be many special things, including the puppet show, to interest children.

Traverse City Is Scene of Church Rites

The First Congregational Church in Traverse City was the scene of the marriage on July 7 of Tallara Sue Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Davis of Birmingham and Northport, and Alan Lee Middleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Middleton of Northport.

The bride wore silk organza over tulle for her wedding, the delicate fashioned of chantilly lace accented by a sweetheart neckline, the same lace forming long sleeves which came to a point over the hand. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearlized crown and she carried white amaranth lilies and ivy.

SANDRA KARNER of Chelsea was maid of honor, wearing for the occasion a yellow nylon sheer fashioned with a scoop neckline, puffed sleeves and a tucked yoke. She wore a yellow butterfly veil and carried a basket of white magnolia daisies. Bridesmaids, whose outfits were the same, included Melanee L. Davis, sister of the bride; Sharon Logsdon of Onekama and Alice Middleton, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was the Rev. John Cernak of Kalamazoo, and ushers were John R. Davis II and Thomas J. Davis, brothers of the bride, and James Sweet of South Lyons, Mich.

Following a wedding trip through northern Michigan, the bridal couple will make their home in Northport.

Mid-Summer Tea Planned by Group

Mrs. Aloysius F. Power and Mrs. James M. Roche of Dunstan Road, Bloomfield Hills, are mid-summer chairmen for the Detroit-Sisters of the Sick Poor Auxiliary.

They have a special request for inviting guests to the second in a series of annual summer luncheons and benefit card parties to be given Wednesday, July 25, at 12:30 p.m. in the gardens surrounding St. Ann's Convent in Detroit. Arrangements have been completed at two planning get-togethers, one at the new Village Woman's Club in Bloomfield Hills, the other in the Birmingham home of Mrs. Jerry T. Flannigan, president emerita of the Auxiliary.

On the occasion of the luncheon, Sister Mary Teresa, O.P., who has spent 30 years in loyal service to the Sick Poor of metropolitan Detroit, will be honored.

During the 33 years the sisters-nurses have been in Detroit, Sister has been at the local convent. She has served in many capacities. In the early years there were long walks and street car rides to the homes of the sick poor; then she became local superior and more recently in charge of the office, dispatching sister-nurses to the homes of the poor. She has seen the work greatly expanded. On her arrival there were only two sister-nurses in the Detroit community and today there are eleven in residency. Sister is presently at Hampton Bay, N. Y., enjoying a vacation. A memory book which guests will sign, will be presented to her at the luncheon. Anyone unable to attend the party, but wishing to be included among the "friends" may send her remembrance to the Convent and names will be listed in the memory book.

Among those assisting with arrangements are Mrs. J. Clarence Grish, Mrs. Louis H. Bridenstine and Mrs. Walter E. Tomicic. Reservations may be made with them or at the Convent.

Past presidents expecting to be present are Mesdames William E. Keane, Arthur G. Kirchner, Henry W. Jones, Arthur F. Martz, Mrs. L. Verne Ansel and Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., who is at present auxiliary president.

From the Birmingham-Bloomfield area will be vice president, Mrs. J. Fred Selman; Mrs. Hanley Dawson, Mrs. Howard Keating, Mrs. Albert F. Boening, Mrs. Walter F. Kuckelmann, Mrs. Walter O.
