boxes. Their crescent-shaped bouquet combined miniature carnations and sweethearts roses of softest shades of pink. Charles A. Dewey of Kalamazoo was best man for his brother-in-law, and seating the guests were George Heine of Pontiac; Thomas Radecky of Detroit; Patrick Albert of New Baltimore; H. James Barr of Mt. Clemens; Robert Harris and David W. MacIntosh.

Karaman - Gossett

Elizabeth Evans Gossett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gossett of Goodhue Road, Bloomfield Hills, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Fadl Sabi Karaman Jr., of New York City, son of Mrs. Sabi Fadl Karaman of Haifa, Beirut, and the late Mr. Karaman.

The ceremony was solemnized at noon in Christ Church Cranbrook, with the Rev. John Albrecht officiating. A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents.

Ivory pearly de soie fashioned the bridal robes which were made with a scooped décolletage, closely fitted bodice and short, puffed skirt. An Alençon lace waist-length mantilla further distinguished the gown, and the bridal bouquet was of gardenias.

Mrs. Basil W. Denning, sister of the bride, came from her home in Surrey, England, to be matron of honor and only attendant. Best man was Walter F. Bonetti of New York City.

Following a wedding trip to the Middle East, the couple will make their home in New York.

Bowen - Hammonds

Mr. and Mrs. John Edmund Bowen III will be at home at 810 Jonathan Lane, Bloomfield Hills, following a honeymoon trip to Sea Island, Ga. The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Everett Englund Hammonds of Barden Road, Bloomfield Hills, is the former Annette Lee Hammonds. Her husband is the son of J. Edmund Bowen of Bellair, Fla., and the late Mrs. Bowen.

The couple repeated their vows Saturday evening in Christ Church Cranbrook with the Rev. John Albrecht officiating, assisted by the Rev. David Bronson of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Fairfield, Conn., a friend of the bridegroom's.

The bride wore ivory pearly de soie with brief court sleeves and an oval décolletage, accented by Duchesse lace from the wedding gown of her grandmother. Her Queen of Scots cap was fashioned from a Duchesse lace baby bib belonging to her great-grandmother, and her veil was of silk illusion. The silver filigree bouquet holder which held phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy, has been in the family for generations and it has become a tradition for each bride to carry it.

Gail Elizabeth Hammonds was maid of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids included Carol Lynn Bowen, sister of the bridegroom, and Mary Jeanne Hargreaves. They all wore white organdy over blue taffeta and carried miniature bouquets of ivy. Karen Kramer, flower girl, was dressed identically.

Capt. Charles Peyton Rufe of Chalfont, Bucks County, Pa. presently stationed at the Presidio of Monterey, Calif., was best man, and seating the guests were Ralph Graham, Peter S. Hoff, man and the Rev. John Hooper of Davison, Mich. Immediately following the service, a candlelight garden reception was given in the home of the bride's parents.

LaVoy - Eklund

Diane Louise Eklund and Charles Stephen LaVoy spoke their marriage vows July 7 in St. Columban Church, Birmingham, after which they left on a wedding trip to Arizona and California.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thor E. Eklund of Clawson and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher LaVoy of Royal Oak.

Silk organza and chantilly lace fashioned the bridal robes, which were further enhanced by a double crown fingertip veil. White roses and Stephanotis made up the bridal bouquet.

The attendants, all in yellow silk organza and carrying red and white nosegays, included Barbara Wilhelm, Louise Leonard, cousin of the bride; Betty Metcalf and Beverly Dale.

Raymond LaVoy was best man for his brother and ushers included Stanley Castiglione, a cousin; Wilmer Thurston, James Daugherty and T. Eric Eklund, brother of the bride.

Stewart - Hayden

Nancy Linn Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Edward Stewart of Waddington Road, Bloomfield Village, and Robert Weber Hayden, son of J. Page Hayden of Cincinnati and the late Mrs. Hayden, have set Aug. 18 as the date of their marriage which will take place in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

Nancy is a graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta and Phi Beta Kappa. Her fiancé, also a graduate of Miami University, was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Among hostesses who have already given pre-nuptial parties for the bride-elect are members of her sorority who entertained before she came home from school; Mrs. Harold McFarland and daughter Marcia, Mrs. Palmer Bollinger and Mrs. A. Craig Gagstetter.

Preceding the wedding other hostesses will be Mrs. Robert Field and Mrs. Donald Voelker. The rehearsal dinner will be given by the bridegroom's father on Aug. 17 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Gaskin - Arthur

Wearing a gown of silk pearly de soie accented by Alençon lace re-embroidered in seed pearls and sequins, Kathleen Helen Arthur walked up the aisle of Holy Name Church in Birmingham Saturday to become the bride of Thomas Henry Gaskin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Gaskin of Detroit. The bride's parents are the Hon. S. Arthurs of Wayfind Lane, Bloomfield Hills.

The bridal outfit was further distinguished by a double bouffant veil, which fell from a Swedish crown of crystal and pearls, and a crescent-shaped bridal bouquet centered by white orchids.

Mrs. Roger Cole of Farmington was her cousin's matron of honor, and bridesmaids included two other cousins, Mrs. Alexander McPherson of Allen Park and Joanne Burghardt of Detroit. They all wore pale pink dresses combining lace and taffeta and carried flowers ranging in color from white through varying shades of pink.

James Gaskin was best man for his brother, and seating the guests were Donald A. Hodgson of Detroit and Benjamin Keeler of Evanston, Ill.

Following a wedding trip in northern Michigan, the couple will be at home in Royal Oak after July 22.

Patterson - Boyer

Martha Ann Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde I. Boyer of Ferndale was married June 30 in the First Methodist Church of Ferndale to Donald James Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Patterson of Lake Park Drive, Birmingham.

The bride wore a sheath gown of ivory silk organza, with beaded Alençon lace trim, shallow scoop neckline, short sleeves and a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was elbow-length, and she carried carnations and stephanotis with ivy.

McConnell - Welch

Marilyn Lee Welch and Thomas Ralph McConnell Jr. spoke their marriage vows June 30 in a double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Welch of Puritan Road, Birmingham, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. McConnell of Southgate, Mich.

The bride wore an embroidered silk organza gown for her wedding fashioned with a bouffant skirt and chapel train. Lilies adorned with seed pearls held her fingertip tulle veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of ivory carnations.
