Hawaiian Luau Fete Stars at Lakeside

By GLORIA JESSUP
Ma 6-3257

As the residents of Woodcrest Farms gathered at the beach area of Woodcrest Lake last Sunday afternoon, they were greeted by Chris Chatfield and Jean Kitchin. Chris and Jean were dressed in traditional Hawaiian costume and were handing out leis.

The beach was decorated with colored streamers and balloons, palm trees and a grass shack served as the beverage corner. Guests helped themselves to a variety of Hawaiian dishes and then sat on the ground, island style.

FOLLOWING THE informal dinner, Mrs. Dale Brubaker and her husband performed the hula. Dancing were Cindy Parker, Cathy Orlin, Paula and Nancy Brubaker, Nancy Ketchum, Lynn and Lori Jessup, Linda Kitchin and Kim Bondart.

Chris Chatfield took the top honors in the limbo contest and there were also prizes for the regatta, sock race, tug of war between the men, the boys and the girls and boys.
