

Junior Guild Plans Box Lunch, Swim At Lathrup Home

A fun day in the sun is planned by the Junior Guild of Providence Hospital July 25.

Members will gather by the pool at the home of Mrs. John Tracey of Lathrup. Box lunches are the order of the day and some ingenious ones are being planned. One will be a cleverly concealed package of a dietary supplement and a jar of vitamin pills; a lunch packed in the crown of a straw hat for another, and one member is borrowing her daughters sand pail for a sandwich receptacle.

After the boxes are admired, members will trade and take their chances on the contents, which could be anything from waterless to a savory cognac beef on rye.

Sets Date

Patricia Dauphin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Dauphin of Columbus, Ohio, has set Aug. 4 as the date of her marriage to Andrew M. Fairbanks, son of Mrs. Julia Moore Fairbanks of Berkeley and Arthur B. Fairbanks of Birmingham.

Exclusive Tour of White House Taken by Delegate and Family

South Oakland County was represented by three Birmingham Women at the sixty-first national convention of Sigma Kappa Sorority held June 30 to July 5 in Washington, D. C. The representatives attended meetings and banquets at the Sheraton Park Hotel, where they also resided during their stay.

Mrs. Rutherford P. Hayes, of 1040 Norwich Road, Birmingham, president of the South Oakland County Chapter, headed the delegation. Also attending were Mrs. Robert W. Swanson, of 918 Norwich Road, Birmingham, Panhellenic delegate, and Mrs. Allen T.

Otto of 1826 Witherbee, national pledge trainer. While in the Capitol, Mrs. Hayes was joined by her children and husband, whose great-grandfather was President Rutherford B. Hayes.

BECAUSE OF THEIR relation to the former Chief Executive, President Kennedy granted the family an exclusive tour of the White House, including a stop in the President's Office to see his desk, which was a gift to President Hayes from Queen Victoria. Many eminent guest speakers highlighted the convention. Delegates heard from such distinguished authorities as Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, who spoke on "The World Today." In addition to Senator Smith, who is a Sigma Kappa herself, Dr. Wilson H. Ekins, president of the University of Maryland, spoke on "Why They Come to College."

Dr. Margaret C. Schweinhart, chairman Maryland State Commission on the Aging, was the guest of the Sorority at the gerontology dinner, where the South Oakland County Chapter received an honorable mention award for its service to the Alma Home for the Aged in Royal Oak.
