Long-Time Residents Feted Preceding Move to Detroit

By HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

The Horace P. Shaws of Why-sall, Bloomfield Hills, entertained Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Vandevor who, after twenty-six years of living in Bloomfield, are moving in August to Indian Village in Detroit.

Unusual aspect (tasty, too!) of the dinner was the main course, quince hen, which is raised, along with pheasant, on the Shaw estate.

Among guests indulging in this gourmet fare were Dr. and Mrs. Russell Wright, who recently moved from Birmingham to the River House in Detroit.

Others who have entertained for the Vandevors are Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, who had a dinner party in their home; Mrs. Edward A. Christy and Mrs. Ben F. Glowacki, who entertained at luncheon, and the Whiting Raymonds who had a group for dinner at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Still other parties include the buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fisk in their new home on Linden Road, and the luncheon Mrs. Donald K. Burne gave at the Detroit Boat Club to introduce Mrs. Vandevor to her new neighbors in Indian Village.

THE JOHN C. LICHTYS of Whispering Pine Lane have returned from a vacation at Rex Terrace on Elk Lake. They were accompanied by their daughters, Jan and Julie, and Mrs. Lichtys mother, Mrs. George A. Sadler, of Pleasant Ridge.

Sunday, the Little Garden Club had a pool party and buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyer on Jonathan Lane.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Demore, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Dale O. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Goodfellow, Mr. and Mrs. George Hake and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kiefer.

Still others were the John Longleys, Robert Lovell, Charles Marquis, James Polders, Earl Schmids, Wendell Smiths, Richard Thorburns, Preston Weir, Mrs. A. L. Hopkins and Mrs. E. R. Sasser.

THE WEDDING of Sylvia Ann Trynall, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sylvester W. Trynall of Willow Lane, Orchard Lake, and Richard McLaughlin Leslie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Leslie of Battle Creek, took place Saturday evening at Kirk in the Hills, with the Rev. Harold C. DeWindt performing the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie, the open neckline appliqued with Alencon lace and pearls. The princess line, dome-shaped skirt, fell into a chapel train, and a pill box of ivory peau de soie, trimmed with lace and pearls, held the tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

THE MILD of honor, Mary Katherine Paul of Winston Salem, N. C., and bridesmaids Judith Lannon of Chicago and J. Carol Ren of Evanston, Ill., all wore moss green organza frocks with deep cowl necklines and slightly belled skirts. Small matching pill box hats and bouquets of yellow daisies and ivy completed their ensembles.

FRANKLIN WOODS

For the past two weeks, the Food Opponents of P. K. ... have been hosting her in a play, Robert Nichols, and his wife, Mrs. Nichols, Bloomfield's ... Mrs. Oppen's sister, who has been vacationing in Pennsylvania, stopped on the way home for a two-day visit today. They all returned to Houston, Texas.

BEHINDSHIRTS

The Paul Amthorns of Lincoln Drive are enjoying a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Cook. They arrived from Lakewood, Fla.

MEADOWLAKE

Mrs. Joseph P. and daughter Carol, with friends Mrs. Ray Stewart and her daughter, Julie, recently returned to their home five homes after an exciting train tour.

Starting at Grand Canyon, they continued to Los Angeles and visited Disneyland. Next they went to San Francisco and on to a quick tour of the fair at Seattle. They continued on to Victoria and Vancouver, British Columbia. On the trip home stops were made at Banff and Lake Louise.

There's an easy way to keep your hair looking its best when you're traveling. American Airlines stewardesses, who travel between hot and cold, dry and humid climates several times each week, say all it takes is a good haircut, a good permanent, hair clips and a can of hair spray. Each night before retiring, brush and comb your hair just the way you want it to look the next day. Then place hair clips to hold a wave here, a line there, spray lightly and when the spray dries, put on your hair net. Next morning you'll look as if you just left the hairdresser.

Did you hear the great news about Hawthorne Electrical Co. It moved just a several weeks ago on 375 Hamilton.
