MRS. RICHARD KURT SCHWARZ

Reception at Club Follows Ceremony

At a double ring ceremony solemnized July 29 in Christ Church Cranbrook, Trudy Lee Vose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Chandler Vose of N. Gwynnary Road, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows to Richard Kurt Schwarz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O. Schwarz of Parkstone Lane, Birmingham. Following the 8 o'clock service, a reception was given at Pine Lake Country Club.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of cream terry duchesse taffeta, the bodice accented by rose-pattern lace frosted with tiny pearls and iridescent paillettes. Beneath the high rising waistline defined by a Dior bowknot, symmetric front pleats flared to side and back fullness which swept into a court train. A wreath of pearl orange blossom sprays interwoven with lace petals secured the tiered veil of misty silk illusion. The bridal bouquet combined stephanotis and phacelopsis.

MRS. RONALD RUSSEK, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Julie Stubbs, Mitzi Hendrixson of Royal Oak and Barbara Moore of Grosse Pointe. They were all dressed identically in azure blue sheaths made with Empire bodices and obi panels marking the slim skirts. Bior bows held their circle veils and they carried snow cloud pom poms, white roses and blue carnations.

Theodore O. Schwarz II was best man, and seating the guests were James Kraus, James Wheeler of Bay City; Lawrence Girard, George Stinnett of Detroit; Roger Hood of Reading, Pa., and Ronald Russek.

Following a wedding trip through northern Michigan, the couple will be at home in Birmingham.

Residents Spend Holiday in South

By VELMA McCANE MA 6-6530

The Mack Pittard game is back home at their Old Orchard address. The Pittards and their children—Pennv, Chin, Lee, Jan and Jon—motored to Atlanta, Ga., recently to spend a week with Mrs. Pittard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hingst.

While there they enjoyed a family reunion with brother Charles and his family of three and brother Eric and his family of four.

WALNUT LAKE

The Walnut Lake branch of W.N.P.A. will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Hall, 5244 Holbrook Road on Aug. 6 at 10 a.m. for a work shop in preparation for the flower show they plan to have this fall. A luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. Richard Gerathy will conduct the class. Members are asked to bring their own flowers, containers, holders and whatever else they wish to work with. The meeting is limited to members only.

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Holene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Old Orchard Drive got home from Camp Narris just in time to bid brother Bobby goodbye before he left for Y. M. C. A. Camp Obijay.

BRAES

The spacious and lovely gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winkelman, 681 Orchard Dr., became the setting for a cocktail and cocktail party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Vera Voss and their son, transferred to New Orleans by his company.

Guests on hand for the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bevans from Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Olberg, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ball and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wise.

WALNUT LAKE

The 25th golden anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. John of Akron, Ohio, was the attraction recently for Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Osakwood, Mr. and Mrs. Avrom Yevich and Mrs. Kenneth Vroman of Kingsville, Ont. Some 75 people were present to help celebrate the happy occasion at Akron.

Swimming instructions for beginners and intermediate groups are being offered again this year by Patrick Cunningham and his staff. Classes will be held for members of the Lone Pine Association at the association's beach on Inkerster Road. Classes began on July 10 and will continue on Thursday and Saturday mornings. Persons wishing to participate in the program may discuss it with Cavannah or any of the life guards at the beach.

KIRKWOOD

Mrs. Raymond Hajjar, Mrs. Ted Peterson and Mrs. Robert Mahler have moved into the Kirkwood area recently. Mrs. Paul Walters of Kinrossmill Road has had a "punch and break" party, with some of the neighborhood girls on hand for an official welcome.

In addition to the guests of honor, there were Mesdames Stan Ainley, Frank Guerner, George Shelby, Ed Frank, Sylvester Zimmerman, George Reesor, Jack Ware, Paul McGrath, Ernest Elmoff, James Jester, Dan Fleming, John Katke, Moses Lane and Stu Schell.

WALNUT LAKE

The annual Lone Pine Association beach party turned out to be a howling success, and we do mean howling. The theme for the year was new and different and the old clothes were a must at the "Hoojah! I'm a Bum." A buffet dinner and dancing under the stars concluded the evening. Claire Robertson was the chairman.
