Plans Flight to Buenos Aires To Design Argentina Exposition

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Manual Jarrin of Bolingbroke Drive will be flying to Buenos Aires on Aug. 4 to design the first Argentina Exposition.

Jarrin is interior design director of Harley & Earl Associates and will be busy with his ideas in South America until the opening of the fair, scheduled for Oct. 13. It will be entitled "Partners in Progress".

Mrs. Jarrin is planning on joining her husband for the grand opening and will stay on for two weeks.

THE WILLIAM M'GUIRES of Chestnut Hill Drive are returning home this week after a three week camping trip through Canada. Their destination was the Seattle World's Fair.

Returning with them for a visit are parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson of Marquette. Little Brad M'Guire enjoyed the attentions of grand and great-grandparents while his parents vacationed.

LAKE CARMEL, N.Y. was the vacation destination of the P. A. Cassinos of Masfield Drive for 10 days. While there they visited Cassinos parents, the James and Mrs. Cassino. There was also a reunion visit with Miss Nancy Waldron of New York City and the Philip Waldrons, who motored from Roanoke, Va. They are relatives of Mrs. Cassino.

By-Pass Anniversary Party For Trip East With Family

By NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green of Westland, by-passed a lavish celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary, July 1, to take a leisurely trip East with their family.

Relaxing, which mostly means playing golf, they made the Basin Harbor Club in Vermont their headquarters for two weeks.

A rendezvous with the John Harms' of N. Cromwell, who were in the vicinity to see son, Steve, at camp, enhanced the holiday.

HOME ALSO, ARE the Len Madges of Ten Hill drive, following two weeks of travel in the East. Taking the scenic route through Canada, with a prolonged stop-over at Niagara Falls to send up a few fire-works, the Madges wound their way through the Adirondacks to Dover, New Hampshire.

There they visited with Madge's brother, a Captain with SAC, and his family.

MID-WAY THROUGH the summer now, Franklin residents are beginning to ask, "When's the Round-up going to be?"

Well, according to the best laid plans of the Franklin Community Association who master-mind and create this gala day (the Round-up coming event annually, the date is Sept. 15).

Mark your calendars accordingly.

THE PAUL RICKER home on Captain's lane is in stitches this week, getting daughter, Susan ready for her five week joint West with the Chet Sampson group. Susan will be leaving Saturday.

Here in time to join the send-off is Mrs. Ricker's mother, Mrs. Ray F. Taylor of Orlando, Fla. Mrs. Taylor will remain through August.

SUMMER JOBS have taken Franklin young people to interesting places.

Bill Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Robert Mitchell of Franklin Park Drive, is a sailing counselor at the Canadian equivalent of our national music camp at Interlochen.

Bill is at camp Manitow Wabing,

California, where they will make their home.

Fisher has accepted a position with the May Company on the west coast.

THE HARRY BIXBYS of Masfield Drive had house-guests for the past 10 days. Arriving from Fort Dodge, Iowa, were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Monaghan, Terry and Kelly, and Bixby's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Dixon.

At the same time they had a "surprise visit" from Son, Mike, who is a student at the University of Minnesota.

MR. AND MRS. A. W. Stoddard of Westview Ct., entertained at a party honoring Stoddard's mother, Mrs. Celia Stoddard of Leonard, Mich. on her 84th birthday recently. Joining in the celebration were Mrs. Blanche Porter and daughter, Mrs. Marion Sutherly, Mrs. Mildred Godbee of Leonard, Glenn A. Cross and Mrs. Mary McKay of Battle Creek.

Highlighting the evening was the elaborate collection of facts and photographs on the family lineage brought by Cross.

Mrs. Fred Stokel of Stonyridge Rd. will be entertaining at a shower luncheon on Saturday honoring her niece, Miss Marjorie Lehr of Grosse Pointe. The guest list will include relatives and friends from Grosse Pointe.
